School Aid Controversy Swells

Milliken Not Bound By Romney's Stand

LANSING (AP) — The state capitol today was the center of a controversy surrounding public aid to parochial schools as the 75th Michigan Legislature convened and Lt. Gov. William C. Milliken prepared his State of the State message.

Milliken already has said he will not be bound by a suggestion by outgoing Gov. George Romney that parochial schools concentrate on religious instruction and leave all secular education to public schools.

The governor-to-be is expected to spell out his recommendations for solving the state's education problems when he speaks to a joint session of the Legislature Thursday.

The Legislature will be the scene of any battle over public funds for nonpublic schools.

Rep. William Ryan, D-Detroit, leader of the Democrats, who have the majority in the House, has termed Romney's suggestion "incredible" and "ridiculous."

Disconcerting

Romney's proposal, made in a televised farewell address, continued to draw mixed reaction from educators and politicians.

In Washington, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. James C. Donahue, executive director of elementary and secondary education of the U.S. Catholic Conference, said Romney's statement was "most disconcerting, coming as it does when he is about to assume the duties of a Cabinet post."

Romney has been named secretary of housing and urban development by President-elect Nixon.

Msgr. Donahue said Romney's statement "seems to reflect a naive about both religious education, and general education planning."

Claims White Recruiters Hurt Black Society

NEW YORK (AP) — A Negro educator complains that "increasingly traumatic visits" from white recruiters are producing a brain drain in black communities that threatens to deprive them "of all that is distinctive."

Vincent Harding, chairman of the history department of Spelman College in Atlanta, Ga., contends far-flung recruitment by the "white establishment" is in effect sapping black communities "of their carefully developed strengths."

Prof. Harding presented his views in an article in the Columbia Forum, a Columbia University publication. He holds a journalism degree from Columbia as well as a Ph. D. in history from the University of Chicago.

"The political forces are competing with both business and academe for the most vigorous, creative black leaders," he writes. The rush, he adds, prompts "many sober black persons to believe that the same institutions that helped for more than a century to create, maintain, and degrade the northern black urban world now are turning to rape it of all that is distinctive."

These days, he says, "every black Ph. D. who has had his name mentioned twice, or who has published the slightest review, is besieged by Northern as well as Southern white institutions—most often in response to the ... demands of their black students."

Interest Hike

DETROIT (AP)—Bank of the Commonwealth and National Bank of Detroit announced Tuesday they had raised the prime commercial lending rate from 6 1/2 per cent to seven per cent.

The Bank of the Commonwealth said the increase reflects the continued high demand for bank credit at a time when monetary policy, in an attempt to check inflation, has restricted the supply of loanable funds.

No Vote On Nuclear Treaty; Blow To LBJ

O'Hara Contender For Demo National Chairman

WASHINGTON (AP) —

Congressional sources say the three leading contenders being considered by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey to become the new Democratic National Chairman are Sen. Fred Harris, Rep. James G. O'Hara and former North Carolina Gov. Terry Sanford.

Lawrence F. O'Brien's resignation as chairman was announced Tuesday in a letter to Humphrey, titular head of the party. Both O'Brien's letter and Humphrey's acceptance were dated last Saturday.

In his letter, O'Brien, chairman since August, told Humphrey that "an outstanding opportunity has been presented to me in the business community. Both professional and personal reasons compel me to accept."

Decide Tuesday

A close Humphrey associate said the vice president definitely plans to recommend a successor to the National Committee when it meets here next Tuesday in its first session since the Democratic defeat in November.

It is expected to ratify his choice. Harris, O'Hara of Michigan and Sanford all were key figures in Humphrey's campaign. Another mentioned for the chairmanship is Sen. Walter F. Mondale of Minnesota.

National Democratic leaders have strongly backed the selection of a "nuts and bolts" man interested in rebuilding party machinery that is in serious disrepair in many states.

Harris, 38, cochairman of United Democrats for Humphrey before the convention, was seriously considered by Humphrey as a vice presidential running mate before he chose Muskie. The Oklahoman was elected to the Senate in 1964.

UDA Founder

O'Hara, 43, was one of the founders of UDH and managed the Humphrey campaign in Michigan, which the vice president carried by 222,000 votes.

Elected to the House in 1958, he is chairman of the Democratic Study Group, the organization of House liberals.

Sanford, 51, was chairman of Citizens for Humphrey-Muskie and was also considered for the vice presidency. Governor of North Carolina from 1961 to 1965, he now practices law in Raleigh.

O'Brien, who accepted the chairmanship at Humphrey's behest, was under strong pressure from many party leaders including the vice president to stay on. But he said all along he agreed to take the job for the campaign only.

Battle Lines Up Against Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic congressional leaders—while not reneging on pledges of cooperation to Richard M. Nixon—are making preparations that could mean a short honeymoon for the new president.

The House Education and Labor Committee drew unmistakable battle lines in three areas Tuesday with introduction of a whopping $14-billion school construction bill and measures to continue President Johnson's antipoverty and school aid programs.

On the Senate side, Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana announced he is broadening the scope of the Democratic Policy Committee as a step toward offering party alternatives to Nixon programs.

Lack Suspect In Coed Slaying

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Investigators searched today for the weapon used to kill Jane Britton, 22, a Harvard graduate student whose body was found sprawled face down across a blood-spattered mattress in her apartment.

A medical examiner said the daughter of the administrative vice president of Radcliffe College had been struck a massive blow on the left side of the head behind the ear by a sharp weapon. Investigators theorized a hatchet or a cleaver was used.

Dr. Arthur McGovern of Cambridge, who ruled the death a homicide, said the shape of the wound indicated that the girl was facing her assailant when struck. He said she had been dead 10 to 12 hours when her body, clad in a disarrayed nightgown, was found at 12:40 p.m. Tuesday.

Police said they were without a suspect. They said there was no evidence of a struggle or of robbery.

The slim, petite brunette was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Boyd Britton of Needham. A graduate of Radcliffe, she was in her second year as a student in anthropology.

Miss Britton failed to appear in a class Tuesday morning, police said. The body was found by James H. Humphries, 27, a fellow anthropology student whom they described as a steady boy friend, and by Mr. and Mrs. Don Mitchell, the girl's fourth floor neighbors in the apartment house near Harvard University.

Chicago Report To Be 'Gentle'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's violence commission will send him a report this week reportedly much milder than earlier staff findings blaming Chicago police for "rioting" against antiwar demonstrators during the Democratic National Convention.

The report, marking the halfway point in the commission's searching probe of violence in America, is a summary of progress made since Johnson appointed the panel last June.

It touches the full range of domestic violence, from assassinations to alley brawls, but makes no direct mention of the June slaying of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy—the act that prompted Johnson to name it.

Contents of the report are being kept confidential until the White House releases it. But one source called it "gentle," and said it concentrates primarily on cataloging the commission's progress in various studies rather than on the underlying reasons for American violence.

Cabinet members and Republican congressional leaders have been that the new GOP administration would concentrate after Jan. 20 on trying wherever possible to improve already existing programs while careful studies are made of any new legislation.

In the House, Education and Labor Chairman Carl D. Perkins' early trip to the hopper may signal a strategy of pushing popular, but costly, programs to force the Republicans to oppose or trim them.

Perkins school construction bill calls for annual expenditures of about $2.8 billion for five years to help build elementary and secondary schools.

The money would go to school districts on the basis of the number of pupils they have from low-income families—the same formula used in the Johnson school program, which stresses teaching and classroom programs rather than construction.

The bill calling for a five-year extension of the antipoverty program also runs counter to the new administration's plans to study the operation of the program and, perhaps, eliminate some of it or transfer parts to other agencies.

Research Vessel Sinks, Crew Safe

NEW YORK (AP) — Twelve crewmen from a research vessel that foundered in the North Atlantic were plucked from a liferaft today after spending 26 hours in the open sea, the Coast Guard said. The crewmen were wet and cold but were otherwise unharmed.

The Essikristine, a Norwegian freighter, picked up the men at 2 a.m., a Coast Guard spokesman in New York said, after the deck officer spotted flashlight signals.

The 12 men huddled in the single liferaft after abandoning their ship, the Sea Surveyor of New London, Conn., at midnight Monday, 20 minutes before the vessel sank about 230 miles southeast of New York.

Plan To Ensure Peace Dashed By Fulbright

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lyndon B. Johnson's one-time base of power—the Senate—has provided him a last and bitter disappointment in the final moments of his public career.

Chairman J. W. Fulbright of the Foreign Relations Committee made official Tuesday what had long been suspected: Despite presidential urgings there will be no immediate action on the nuclear nonproliferation treaty.

Thus the pact, a New Frontier legacy that became for Johnson something of a personal crusade, probably will bear the signature of a Republican president.

No Comment

There was no immediate comment from the White House. Nor in the waning days of the delicate transition period to a new administration was one expected.

But for Johnson, a wartime leader who had sought to leave this lasting imprint on efforts to ensure peace, there was ample cause for disappointment.

For one thing, there was his personal devotion to getting it through.

This last satisfaction, ironically, was denied him by a Democratic-controlled Senate where less than a decade after gaining legendary power as President leader he faced as President some of the bitterest opposition to his Vietnam War policies.

Protect Weapons

It also was a Senate that turned in four short years from helping him pass a flood of Great Society social legislation to spawning serious challengers from his own party for a job he finally gave up voluntarily.

The treaty that falls to the Nixon administration to ramrod through the Senate, would bar signers from sharing nuclear weaponry and know-how with countries lacking them. It would prohibit have-not nations from seeking nuclear arms or help developing them.

It passed the U.N. General Assembly last June, and was signed by 62 nations including the United States, the Soviet Union and Great Britain July 1. The Treaty, however, does not become effective until ratified by 40 nations including those three powers.

France Refused

The other two Nuclear powers, Red China and France, have refused to sign or follow the treaty.

The Senate had appeared on the verge of acting last August but held back after the Russian-led invasion of Czechoslovakia continuing delay bolstered by the support of the then-campaigning Nixon.

As late as early December Johnson was reportedly still considering calling the Senate into special session to consider the treaty—a move many senators publicly opposed.

Warn Travelers Of Snow Storm

By The Associated Press Cold wave and travelers warnings were issued across much of the United States today, but Michigan motorists generally got a break with most main roads in the state reported clear.

State Police reported most southeastern Michigan roads dry, and clear skies added to the commuters' respite.

The Michigan Auto Club said scattered slippery spots, mainly in central and upper Michigan marred otherwise smooth going for motorists. Some secondary and side roads also were closed, and roads in the thumb area were reported covered with light snow.

Residents were advised to keep their snow shovels at the ready, however, with new snow and colder temperatures forecast tonight.

One to three inches were forecast in the Detroit area tonight, with three to five inches in the southwest.

A SAN FRANCISCO POLICEMAN flashes the "V" for victory sign at Black Student Union leader Jack Alexis (with bull horn right) just before he arrested him Monday during picketing at San Francisco State University. Alexis was charged with disturbing the peace and according to police had used a bull horn to harass, at close quarters, students who were crossing the picket lines. (AP Wirephoto)

Bay Counts Location Its Great Resource

By JEAN WORTH
Of Panax Newspapers
GREEN BAY, Wis. — This city, which claims the greatest growth rate in Wisconsin, thinks that the greatest thing it has going for it is its geographic location.

It caused the creation of the community in the first place and before Milwaukee or any other Wisconsin community was started, and it is the foundation for the city's economy today.

Chicago became the greatest city of the Midwest because of its geographic location. All traffic to the west that came up against Lake Michigan had to go through Chicago or near it in getting around the lake and the flow nourished the city. It became the hub of so many activities that it is the busiest air center in the world.

End of Bay
Green Bay duplicates in a smaller way the situs of Chicago. It is at the south end of Green Bay, as Chicago is at the south end of Lake Michigan. The traffic through Green Bay from the Door Peninsula isn't as heavy as that from Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula of Michigan down the west shore of Green Bay, but land traffic is only one of three legs of Green Bay's transportation system.

Also of major importance are its lake ship traffic, which crosses the Door Peninsula via the Sturgeon Bay ship canal and skirts it by the Death's Door and other passages into Lake Michigan, and air traffic which crosses it on an aerial bridge to the Lower Peninsula of Michigan.

Pulp and paper making and paper converting and allied activities are the top industry at Green Bay, employing more persons than any other business. They are dependent upon the city's port position and rail hub situation. It is served by three railroads and has daily passenger service to Chicago, which is becoming a rare bird.

Distribution Center
Other major elements of the city's economy are heavy machinery manufacture like Northwest Engineering Co.'s crane manufacture, some automotive manufacturing and machine shops, a can factory, food canning, a cheese market and especially distributive businesses. It is, after Milwaukee, the largest distribution center in Wisconsin.

"It's my impression," says David Yuenger, editor of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, that the commercial interests between Green Bay and Milwaukee are quite limited. Many of us, of course, recognize the importance of Milwaukee to Wisconsin. It is our one big metropolitan area in Wisconsin, but we don't think we're commercially dependent upon it."

Press Competition
The competition between metropolitan Milwaukee and the regional centers like Green Bay is exemplified by the scramble of the Milwaukee Journal (and the Milwaukee Sentinel, which the Journal owns) for outstate circulation and the insistence of the Green Bay Press-Gazette that it's going to have to fight for it in P-G territory.

The Press-Gazette started its Sunday paper in 1961, circulates in the Upper Peninsula as far as Houghton, Marquette and Escanaba. "We don't sell a lot of papers in the U. P., says Yuenger "but it all helps."

The Press-Gazette is currently spending $3.5 million in a mechanical improvement program which will move its presses and mechanical department from its present building to an addition at the rear which is already up and which will be operative in July, 1969. Its growth has left it with a press run of more than 4 hours and its new 125-page Goss Mark II letterpress will be able to print 70,000 copies an hour.

Air Traffic
Goss experts convinced P-G executives that offset printing (superb photographic reproduction by lithographic process) was too slow to meet their needs and that there's no solution of the speed problem in sight.

Among the most compelling reasons for investments like that of the P-G in Green Bay's future is its growing transportation. Its Austin Straubel Field is a hub, though not headquarters of North Central Airlines' system. It originated 292 passengers in 1948, was up to 28,745 by 1958.

Last year the Bay airport originated 91,051 passengers, and terminated 93,849, for a total of 184,900 passengers. With 215,462 air transfers it accounted for a total of 400,362 air passengers.

Port Traffic Grows
Port of Green Bay foreign tonnage broke all records in 1968 with 198,863 tons, including 138,390 imported and 60,473 exported. Previous record was 187,231 tons in 1961 when the federal government made large volume shipments of dried milk. Value of foreign commerce last year was $16.1 million, a record.

Total waterborne commerce at Green Bay in 1968 topped 2.5 million tons, about the same as in 1967. Coal made up most of the tonnage, with 2 million tons received, off 134,000 tons from 1967. Milk exports were down, too. Asphalt cargoes increased and so did petroleum shipments.

Cow Milkers In Big Demand

ESCONDIDO, Calif. (AP) — A good cow milker in San Diego County is hard to find, now that dairies are offering rent-free homes, up to $700 a month and even a free gallon of milk a day.

Since it takes years to train a top milker, the San Diego County Dairy Herd Improvement Association is worried. "Just as the cow becomes accustomed to one milker, he leaves for another dairy," a spokesman said.

Milkers are in great demand. So the dairies are setting up a school, three nights a week at Escondido high school. So far 17 men have signed up.

Tonnage topped 3 million tons until 1961 when the Chicago-to-Green Bay petroleum products pipeline was activated. These totals aren't impressive ranged against 6 million plus tons at ore ports like Marquette and Escanaba but they are significant mixed traffic figures.

Yuenger rates Green Bay basically a conservative community. He recalls as a city hall reporter in 1941 the then mayor opposing a quest for war industries, because they would be a problem when the war was over, "and besides all our people are employed, anyway."

Cultural Status
"Our people have a strong feeling about things being right or wrong," said Yuenger. "But it's a kind of swinging community, too." The original ethnic groups included Germans, Dutch, Polish, Belgians and Scandinavians. And, of course, the Irishmen who ran the railroads and who lived in Irish Patch on the West Side. John Brogan was engineer and George O'Houlihan was trainman. The nationality neighborhoods have broken up now with new generations and great movement.

Green Bay has only a few Negro families, but it has a Fair Housing Ordinance that permits no exclusion. It has a symphonic orchestra, a community theater, a fine arts series, lectures, art exhibits and the cultural influences of St. Norbert College and University of Wisconsin-Green Bay.

College Bond Issue Okayed

LANSING (AP) — The State Municipal Finance Commission has approved the $210,000 bond issue of Bay de Noc Community College to finance the construction of facilities at its new campus in Escanaba.

The bond issue will be retired from millage approved by the voters of Delta County in a referendum held last year. Construction of first buildings at the College's new campus has begun.

Two school bond issues totaling $8.5 million by Oakland County's West Bloomfield School District No. 5 were also approved Tuesday by the State Municipal Finance Commission.

Also approved were school bond issues of $5.2 million by Eaton Rapids Public Schools and special assessment bond issues of $420,000 by Clinton Township, Macomb County, and $85,000 by Canton Township, Wayne County.

Issue of $300,000 in motor vehicle highway fund notes by Huron County also was approved.

Seek 2 Men In Canada Slaying

OTTAWA (AP) — The Ontario provincial police announced Tuesday they were seeking two men in connection with the slaying of two men — one from Michigan — last Friday near Carp, Ont.

The police identified the two sought as Donald Joseph Philion, 29, a native of Cobalt, Ont., with no fixed address, and David or Daniel Breault, 23, a native of Ottawa with no fixed address.

Chief Inspector J.S. McBride of the criminal investigation branch, announced the names at a news conference where he disclosed that police had found an abandoned rented car in Montreal containing two semiautomatic rifles, one with a broken stock.

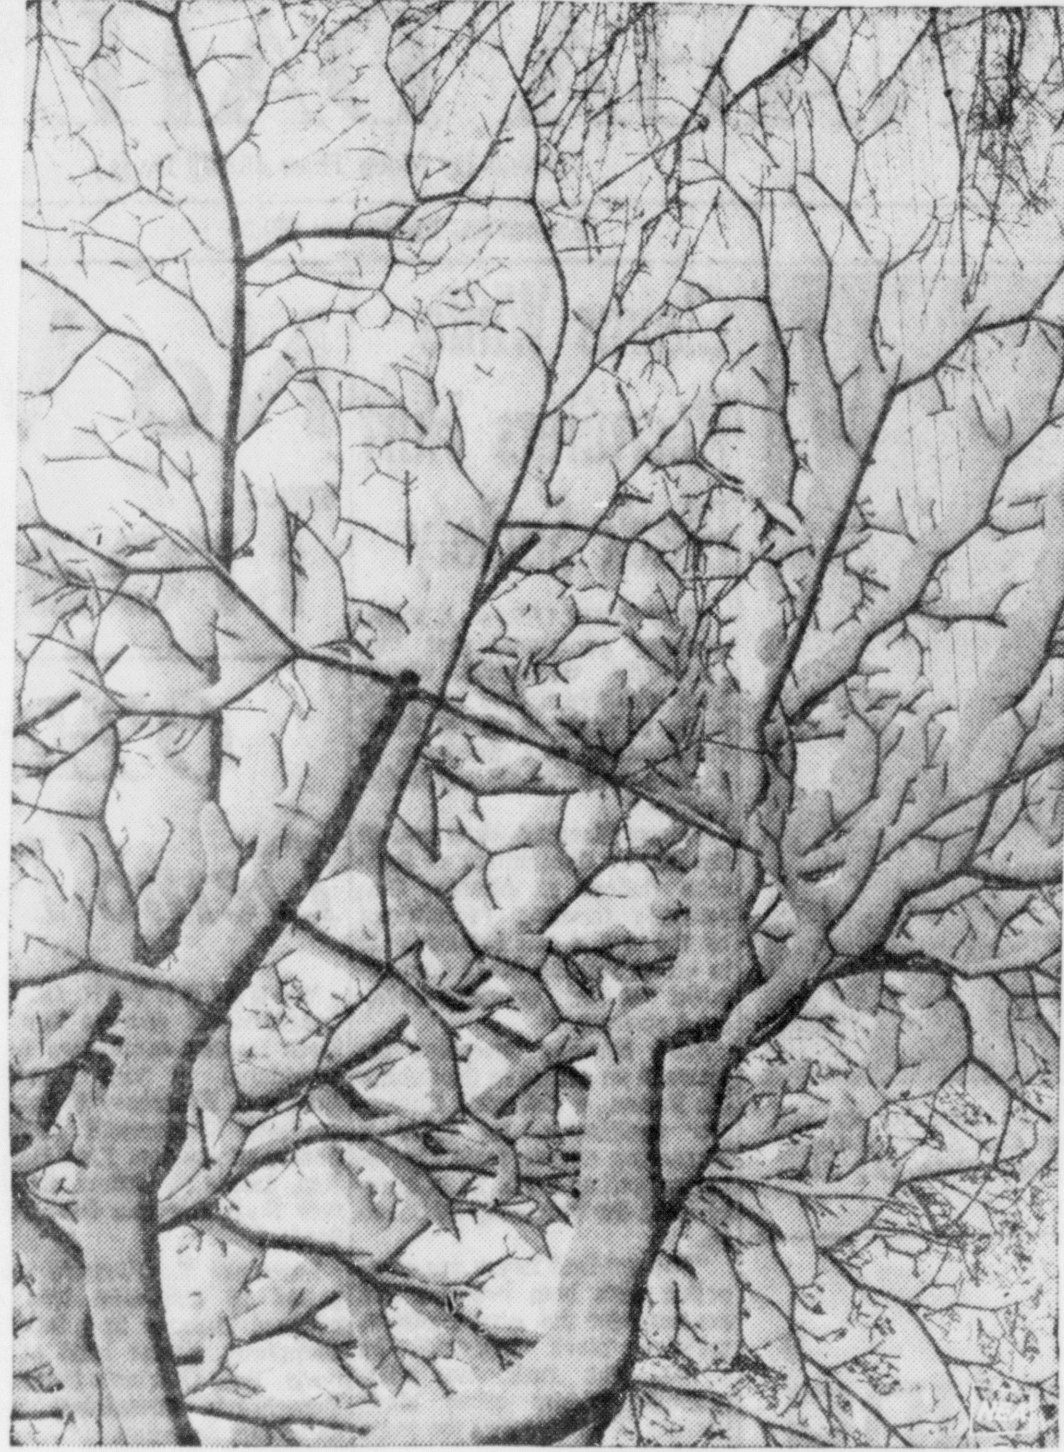

Gerald McDonald, 31, of Ottawa and his uncle, Kenneth D. Vallee, 42, of St. Clair Shores, Mich., were gunned down by three men who flagged down their cars on a deserted stretch of highway about 25 miles west of Ottawa.

Part of a rifle stock was left behind by the killers.

Briefly Told

The Wait Watchers TOPS Club will meet at 7:30 p. m. today at the VFW Hall.

State Police ticketed Joseph Noyes, Midland, for violation of the basic speed law after a minor accident Tuesday on U.S. 2 near County Rd. 535. Other traffic summonses recently have been issued to Carol Premo, Rte. 1, Gladstone, expired operator's license; Sharon Dupont, 1605 Wisconsin Ave., Gladstone, violation of the basic speed law; Robert Hermans, 308 S. 12th St., violation of the basic speed law; Gerald Sundquist, Rte. 1, Bark River, failure to yield right of way, and Thomas Groos, Rte. 1, Gladstone, violation of basic speed law and failure to report a property damage accident.

Claims Men Should Try Speculating In Stock

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "Every intelligent, ambitious young man with a desire for money ought to try speculating in the stock market. He should take a try at it and if he's not cut out for the work he should quit."

The advice is from Gerald Loeb, an investment adviser now hailed as the "Dean of Wall Street" and the "Millionaire's Money Man," but who began with more ambition than money, more nerve than knowledge, more hope than prospects.

Now a millionaire and, at 69, enjoying the slightly quieter pace of an office in San Francisco after decades as one of Wall Street's most successful investors and advisers, Loeb was asked what he would do if he were young again.

Know What He Wants
"A young man should know what he wants in life," he said. "Not every young man wants money, although I find quite a few young men who think they don't want it and later find out they do."

"More important than the desire for money is to know what you want to do and to have a single goal. You must decide how to invest your time."

Loeb doesn't talk that way for long. The market is his forte, his livelihood, his expression. He admits it has been both vocation and avocation, work and play. He is prejudiced.

"Simply by choosing Wall Street as a career," he said,

Dwelling Is Destroyed By Fire At Wells

A one story frame building, a garage converted into a dwelling, was destroyed by fire at Wells Tuesday morning, it is reported by Escanaba firemen who were called to the scene. The cause of the fire is undetermined.

The property is owned by Robert Dabney, was located at 309 S. 4th St. Wells, and the loss was insured. The building was occupied by the owner. No one was injured in the blaze.

"should hold out the promise of doing better financially than in other endeavors."

Chance Mind
"I am biased, but I think you have to give the market an advantage. It gives you liquidity, wide choice, lets you buy in small amounts and permits you to change your mind in a hurry."

But not everyone can begin with a $13,000 inheritance, as Loeb did. Even though he later lost most of it, he was provided the opportunity to experiment and learn. Others, however, must acquire the funds to begin.

"You must build up your savings by holding personal living expenses in check," he replied.

Bridge Traffic At Record High

Mackinac Bridge traffic and revenues reached record highs both for December 1968 and for the entire year, according to Prentiss M. Brown, chairman of the Mackinac Bridge Authority, in his monthly report of bridge facts and figures.

"Despite the month - end stormy weather and midweek holiday which curtailed traffic throughout Michigan, a new record for Mackinac Bridge crossings was set during December of 1968. At the same time, new highs were established for both revenues and traffic for the year 1968.

"With the end of 1968, a 60 per cent reduction in fares went into effect, subsidized by a $3.5 million appropriation out of the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund passed by the Legislature in November 1967. Passenger car crossings were $3.75; now they are $1.50. Similar 60 per cent fare reductions are in effect for other types of vehicles and combinations," said Brown. December traffic was up 5.5 per cent from 47,512 vehicles a year ago to 50,143 vehicles. Revenues increased 6.6 per cent from $219,866 to $234,455.

For the entire year of 1968, traffic was up 7.6 per cent from 1,400,292 crossings to 1,506,789. Fare revenues increased 8.2 per cent from $6,152,705 to $6,658,725.

"The first of the year also saw elimination of Mackinac

Bridge Authority charge plates and other credit card accommodations. The Authority considered the advent of the reduced fares an appropriate time for eliminating the book-keeping chores required by the charge systems.

"For the convenience of commercial users and others who do not care to handle cash, the Authority has issued and sold $15 books of scrip or tickets that can be used both in and out of the book and have no expiration date. We did this as a convenience to fleet and bus line operators and those others who had hitherto made use of the several charge facilities," said Brown.

Skating Rinks Opening Friday

Official opening of major skating rinks in the city is scheduled for Friday night at 7:00 p. m., the Recreation Dept. announced.

Although some unsupervised skating is possible before that date, patrons are asked to cooperate with city workmen in efforts to build up a solid base of ice which will withstand mid-winter mild spells.

Royce Park and Webster are the largest skating areas in the city and are equipped with warming houses and lights for evening activity. Adult supervision is provided in the evenings and on Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

The rink at the water tower area is maintained for junior hockey instructions and games on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights and all day Saturday. The reorganized Escanaba Hawks hockey team will practice at the rink Tuesday, and Saturday nights and Sunday afternoon.

Major rinks will be supervised according to the following hours: Every evening from 7:00 to 9:30; Saturday and Sunday afternoons from 1:30 to 4:30.

After sufficient ice has been built up, afternoon flooding will not be necessary and rinks will be open for public skating on weekday afternoons. Neighborhood rinks at Ogden, Sylvan Point, and the Babe Ruth field will receive the attention of city crews next week.

The Danforth Ski Hill will be open for public skiing Thursday night from 7 to 9:30 and Saturday afternoon and Sunday afternoon from 1:30 to 4:30.

Branches in Many Principal Cities of U.S. and Canada—Founded 1904

THE FIRST so-called "ice bridge" of the season is forming in the lower Niagara River below the American Falls (left) and the Horseshoe Falls (center rear.) The ice stretches between the U. S. and Canadian shores. (AP Wirephoto)

Fishermen Told Of Ice Danger

The Department of Natural Resources today combined a report that a few fishing shanties have appeared on the ice of Little Bay de Noc above Gladstone with a warning of the dangers of early-season fishing.

The Department reports about six inches of ice on the upper bay.

"However, caution is urged with respect to ice travel due to the heavy blanket of snow, which is not conducive to good ice formation," the Department advises.

The catch in that area is generally comprised of northern pike and perch—and reports to date indicate only mediocre success.

In Marquette County, Johnson Lake near Gwinn is fair for rainbow, Goose Lake near Ishpeming fair for northern pike and perch, and Teal Lake near Negaunee fair for walleye. There also is fair trout fishing in Perch and Squaw Lakes near Republic.

Regulatory measures effective Jan. 1 provide a more liberal fishery for the trout and salmon family from certain inland lakes and the Great Lakes.

Basically, these regulations provide that trout and salmon may be taken at any time from all inland lakes (excluding certain designated trout lakes) and from the Great Lakes.

Additionally, these species may be taken through Feb. 28, 1969, from designated trout lakes in Delta, Marquette and W1/2 Alger counties:

Alger—Mirror Lake.
Delta—Camp 7 Lake.
Marquette—Lake Angeline, Brocky Lake, Perch Lake, Sperry Lake, Twinn Lake, Lake Arfelin, Johnson Lake, Squaw Lake, Schweitzer Impoundment and Wolf Lake.

There is a seven inch size limit on inland waters and a 10 inch size limit on the Great Lakes. The daily and possession limit is five singly or in combination.

Supervisors To Appoint County Study Committee

Continuing reorganization efforts, Delta County's new five-man Board of Supervisors Tuesday night reduced 17 county board committees to seven and approved appointment of a seven-member committee to study county government.

Board Chairman Frank Stupak of Gladstone, who proposed the reorganized committee structure, said the county study committee would be appointed to review governmental operations and make recommendations for improvement and changes.

Members of the study committee are expected to be appointed at the next board meeting, Tuesday, Jan. 21.

The seven committees established were consolidations of the former 17 committees and one of them—the personnel committee—will be a layman's committee composed of former members of the board of supervisors who had served on the previous personnel committee.

Named to the committee were Joseph Goodman of Brampton, Jerome Stannard of Ford River, Cecil Chase of Escanaba, Raymond Norton of Gladstone and Henry Vitzke of Masonville.

The layman's committee is the first named in Delta County in recent years to work on county business. The board agreed, however, that the men appointed are familiar with county personnel problems and that appointment of a personnel committee from the present board would be impractical.

The other committees named were Equalization, the whole board with Supervisor Phil Mi-ron of Ford River as chairman; Finance, the whole board, H. George Nelson of Escanaba, chairman; Health and Welfare, Stanley Dominick of Ensign, Nelson and Harold Vanlerberghe of Escanaba with Dominick as chairman; County Planning, whole board, Vanlerberghe as chairman; Public Af-

Rotary To Meet With District Governor Jan. 14

The Rotary Club in preparation for the annual visit of its district governor conducted committee sessions following luncheon at the House of Ludington Tuesday noon.

Richard Rinehart, Rotary president, announced that Michael J. Anuta, Menominee, past district governor, will visit the Escanaba club on Tuesday, Jan. 14, representing District Governor Norman H. Smith of Green Bay.

Rotary committee chairmen and officers will meet at the Rinehart home, 319 S. 3rd St., next Monday at 7:30 p.m. in advance of the governor's visit.

fairs, Vanlerberghe, Nelson and Miron with Vanlerberghe as chairman, and Zoning, whole board, Stupak as chairman.

In addition, the Board named Dominick and Miron as liaison persons for the Board of Supervisors with the Welfare Board; Vanlerberghe to serve as liaison in highway matters; Vanlerberghe as the county delegate to the Upper Peninsula Committee on Area Progress (UPCAP), and Edward Cox of Escanaba and Stupak as members of the Alger-Delta-Marquette Community Mental Health Board.

Detroit Demos Resume Feud

LANING (AP)—A long-time feud between two Detroit Democrats broke out again Tuesday as one asked the State House of Representatives not to set the other as a member.

The petition was filed against State Rep. David S. Holmes Jr., who won a third House term last November. It was filed by former Rep. Richard A. H. J. Guzowski, who lost his seat to Holmes in 1964 by 12 votes.

Guzowski, who legally added "Honest John" to his name some years ago, charged Holmes was ineligible to serve in the House since he does not live in the district he represents. Holmes denied the charge.

"I don't know what he's up to unless he wants a little publicity," Holmes said, adding the same question had been settled in his favor by Wayne County Circuit Court after the elections of 1964 and 1966.

Plea Heard For 'Press Rates'

WASHINGTON (AP)—A major segment of the nation's news media says news dissemination will be impaired seriously if the Federal Communications Commission doesn't permit continued "press rates" for use of communications facilities.

The pleas for continued low-cost rates were made Monday by the Associated Press and United Press International, the two primary news services, the American Newspaper Publishers Association, the National Association of Broadcasters and other news services and groupings.

The FCC made the proposals public Tuesday.

They agreed—in contradiction to the opinion of the FCC's Common Carrier Bureau—the press is entitled to low communications rates and that higher rates would hamper the distribution of news.

On Oct. 1, 1964, American Telephone & Telegraph Co. and Western Union Telegraph Co. had—with FCC authorization—raised their rates to commercial customers for use of private line telegraph and telephotograph facilities.

But the FCC made an exception in press rates, which were kept at their previous level, while it studied whether they should be continued.

Direct Timber Sales Halted

The large Borealis Timber Sale is no longer available for direct purchase announces Al Troutt, forest supervisor, Hiawatha National Forest, Escanaba.

The 15 year timber sale of 500,000 cords of pulpwood, advertised for sale last spring, received no bids. Since then it has been available to any qualified purchaser at the advertised rates and sale conditions.

Timber values have changed and the stumpage rates are being reappraised to reflect this change, Troutt said. National Forest timber stumpage rates are determined by subtracting all logging costs and an allowance for profit from the selling price of the product at the market point.

The selling price of some of the timber species has dropped. A reappraisal will reflect this change. Borealis will be re-advertised in April or May, Troutt added.

The sale was originally set up to market surplus wood and attract new or expanded industry to the Upper Peninsula. Neither of these objectives have changed, said Troutt. There are some 35,000 cords of wood per year available on the Hiawatha National Forest over and above the amount utilized by present markets. New markets are needed.

"We are quite confident that a more stabilized market and reappraised stumpage rates will create favorable conditions and Borealis will sell next spring," Troutt concluded.

Tape Exhibit Turns Him On

DETROIT (AP)—While 100 other works of art were unveiled for the 57th Exhibition for Michigan Artists, another was unmasked—from a roll of tape.

On the floor of the Detroit Art Institute gallery, there's a bona fide, certified work of art that is made up of 180 feet of black masking tape, stretched in a double line on the gallery floor.

It was among items chosen from a field of 1,276 entries.

"It had to get through two juries to be accepted for the show," said Samuel Wagstaff, curator of contemporary art of the Detroit Art Institute.

"Wow, it really turns me on," said the tape artist, Charles Santon, 21, a Wayne State University art student.

The tape is stuck to the gallery floor where it has been scuffed, stepped on and torn by museum workmen lacking a certain aesthetic perception. The exhibit will be opened to the public Jan. 15.

It stretches the length of a 90-foot gallery in two lines, interrupted in the middle by a partition on which are hung several other entries.

What is it about?

"Uh, like, I could say something brilliant," said creator Santon, "but it's just tape breaking up."

"Wouldn't you say," prodded curator Wagstaff, "that it's reality? About awareness?"

"Yeah," said Santon. "And like, it's always there."

"What he means," explained Wagstaff, "is that it appears to travel up the doorways and all around them. It pre-empt's space in a way. It outlines space."

"And like, it doesn't get in the way," said Santon. "That's important."

Santon and Wagstaff—who had nothing to do with making the selections—do not exactly deny that the tape is a joke, a put-on, but seem to shrug the question off.

MSU Opens 7-Week Sex Education Study

EAST LANSING (AP)—Amid praise that "it's the greatest thing that's happened in the field of sex education in many a day," Michigan State University opened a seven-week colloquy on sexuality Tuesday.

"This is the first real major springboard that we've had to open sex education up in university settings," said Dr. James McCary, a professor of psychology at the University of Houston and the first in a series of 22 guest lecturers.

"It takes plain old guts" to face the possible wrath of those who do not consider such a program worthwhile, McCary told a news conference.

John Gagnon, associate professor of sociology at the State University of New York at Stony Brook and another lecturer, said he was "struck by the willingness of a large university to take sex out of the closet and take it seriously."

Do Better Job

"We are not giving something where there is nothing," added Dr. Selig B. Neubardt, clinical instructor in obstetrics and gynecology at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine, Bronx, New York.

Neubardt said young people are getting sex information "in the streets" anyway. "Sex education is being given right now," he said. "The question is 'can we give something better?'"

"Like it or not," McCary said, sex education must be given in school. "It is not being done in homes," he said.

"Too often parents rely on the supposition that if their children do not know about sex they will avoid it and will consequently lead a sexually unblemished life," he said in an all-university address. "Nothing could be further from the truth."

Sex Not Rampant

McCary said promiscuity is not rampant among college students, as some persons believe.

"Although 75 per cent of college girls express the belief that their classmates are 'sleeping around' surveys and research studies consistently point out that actually only 20 per cent of all college girls experience premarital intercourse."

There is no sex revolution at the present time, McCary said, but "there is more and more evidence that revolt looms on the horizon."

Attitude Change

"One can hardly have escaped noticing a change in sexual attitudes in recent years," he said, "as evidence by the grow-

Auto Warranty Is Under Fire

WASHINGTON (AP) — High brass of the auto industry will be among the witnesses this week as a Federal Trade Commission hearing throws the spotlight on the automobile warranty system.

An FTC staff report released last month said there was widespread consumer dissatisfaction with the way the automakers and their dealers stand behind guarantees on automobiles.

The investigators also found many dealers who admitted cutting corners on warranty repairs but said they had to because they are insufficiently reimbursed by manufacturers.

A hearing to assemble more information on the warranty question opens Thursday and will continue off and on until Feb. 10. Among those offering testimony, industry officials, automobile dealers and disgruntled car owners.

Lining up ordinary consumers to describe their unhappy experiences in obtaining warranty repairs was one of the easiest parts of arranging the hearing, an FTC spokesman said.

Hundreds of letters have poured in from car owners clamoring for a change in the warranty system since the hearing was announced, he said.

Betty Furness, President Johnson's special assistant for consumer affairs, will be the first witness to address the five-member commission. Others appearing Thursday will include Sen. Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis., Rep. Charles Vanik, D-Ohio, and spokesmen for state consumer protection commissions.

Hart Named To Policy Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sens. Philip A. Hart of Michigan and J. W. Fulbright of Arkansas were named today to the Senate Democratic Policy Committee.

They take the places left vacant by the retirement of Sens. Lister Hill of Alabama and Carl Hayden of Arizona.

Fulbright is chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Hart is a leader of the Democratic liberal bloc in the Senate.

The chief function of the policy committee, with Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana as chairman, is to pass on the scheduling of the Senate's legislative action.

The appointments were approved at a conference of Democratic senators.

Murder Charge

MUSKEGON (AP)—A 25-year-old Muskegon Heights mother of four has bound over to circuit court for a Jan. 13 hearing on an open murder charge in the stabbing of a Muskegon Heights man. Vera Mae Walton was charged in the Dec. 28 death of Eddie Bradford, 33.

DAVID T. OLIVERSON, 22, Garden City, Mich., is held by unidentified policeman, after he was arrested at Metropolitan airport Sunday. Oliver stood mute when he was arraigned in Riverview Municipal Court on a charge of possessing narcotics. Wayne county sheriff Roman S. Gribbs said that a suitcase in his possession held 150 bricks of marijuana and about 2,000 pep pills. (AP Wirephoto)

House To Fall Under Demo Control Today

LANSING (AP) — The 75th Michigan Legislature assembled for the first time today, beginning its 1969 session with a touch of pomp and ceremony and in what appeared to be harmonious bipartisan accord.

Democrats made ready to take control of the House of Representatives, which Republicans held by a narrow margin in 1967-68. The Senate, whose members did not face re-election last year, remained 20-18 in GOP control.

Attention was focused on the House, where once a major leadership fight had appeared likely. Now, observers thought, majority Democrats had closed their ranks enough to unite behind their party's candidates.

To Elect Ryan

If so, Rep. William A. Ryan, D-Detroit, a soft-spoken 49-year-old former miner, Marine and UAW local president, will be elected speaker, or chief presiding officer, of the chamber.

Barring an unforeseen party blowup, the House will also install Rep. Stanley J. Davis, D-Grand Rapids, as associate speaker pro tempore.

In the Senate, Sen. Milton Zaagman, R-Grand Rapids, is to be elected assistant president pro tempore.

As House speaker, Ryan succeeds Rep. Robert Waldron, R-Grosse Pointe, who held the chamber's gavel in 1967-68 but was forced to yield it when the Nov. 5 election gave Democrats a 57-53 edge.

Waldron Heads GOP

Waldron remains head of the House GOP, having been elected minority leader by the Republican caucus.

Already there is one vacancy in the 110-member House. Rep. Frederic Marshall, R-Allen, died Dec. 21 of cancer. The vacancy will be filled in a special election Feb. 25.

Many lawmakers said they hoped the main bulk of this session's work could be completed by early July.

The House and Senate plan to convene jointly Wednesday to hear the State of the State Message read by Lt. Gov. William Milliken, soon to be governor himself.

Gingress Recount

The Legislature then will adjourn for a week or two, depending on whether or not Rep. Jack Gingress, D-Iron Mountain, elects to seek a recount in the election he lost by 318 votes to Republican John Payant of Kingsford.

A House recount would mean sending 10 legislators to recheck votes in the five-county Upper Peninsula district, and probably would bring a two-week recess.

Major issues to face lawmakers in 1969, besides the annual task of writing a state budget, include public school re-financing and possible state financial aid to nonpublic schools.

Chrysler Freeway Opens On Friday

LANSING (AP) — A hand-forged chisel and hammer from the tool chest of the late Walter P. Chrysler will be used to "cut the ribbon" Friday as an eight-mile stretch of the Chrysler Freeway is opened.

The State Highway Commission says the section is the longest and most expensive — $65 million — urban freeway ever opened at one time in Michigan. The section is between I 94 and Hazel Park.

Except for a one-mile section to be built in Hazel Park—site of a future interchange with I 696—motorists will be able to drive nonstop on I 75 between downtown Detroit and a point just north of Alger in Arenac County.

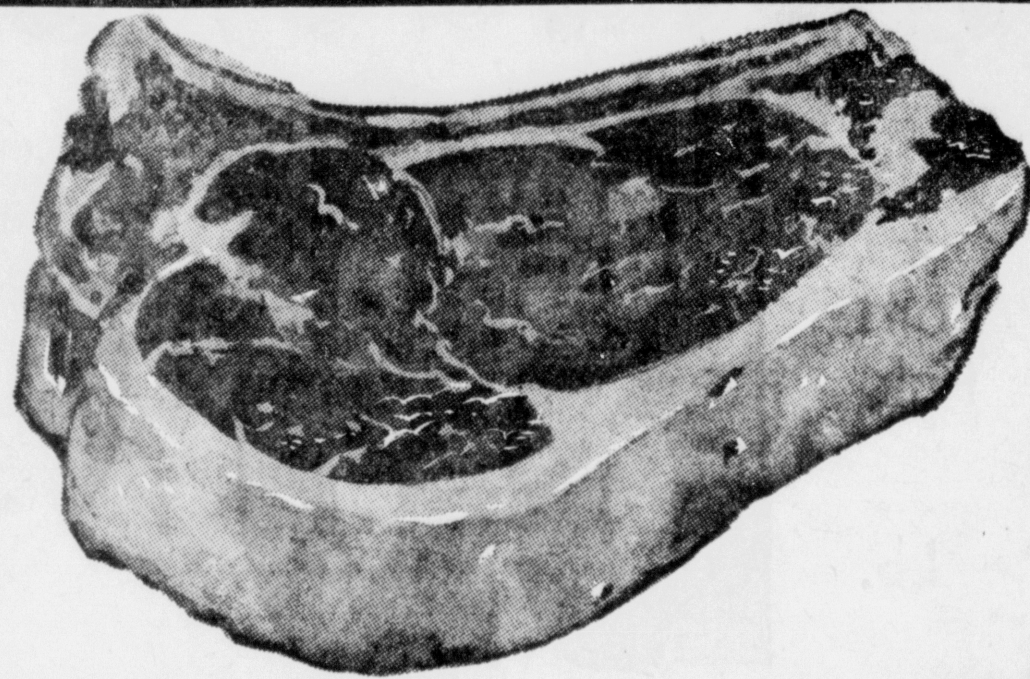

The dedication marks completion of 87 per cent of I 75 in Michigan, the state's longest freeway stretching 393 miles between Sault Ste. Marie and the Michigan-Ohio border south of Monroe.

Two Servicemen Killed In Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Michigan soldiers died recently in Vietnam, the Defense Department announced Tuesday.

Killed in action was Spec. 4 Reynaldo Arenas, son of Maria B. Arenas of Holland. Army Sgt. Thomas A. Sherman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Sherman of Ortonville, died in Vietnam, but not as a result of hostile action.

Snow Snarls Traffic:

'Emergency Action' Considered By City

By CLINT DUNATHAN

Streets narrowed by snowbanks, intersections where visibility is reduced to a few feet, a growing number of traffic accidents, and parking an increasing problem for downtown employees combined to form what City Manager George Harvey today described as "an emergency situation."

"I talked with Police Chief Richard Frederick today and I expect to contact the Councilmen on what can be done to meet these problems caused by continued snow storms," said Harvey.

"One of the things I am particularly concerned about is public safety and what would happen if the fire truck had to travel down a street that is almost blocked by parked cars. There are a number of streets where this situation exists, and the answer may be the limiting of parking to one side of the street only during the emergency. This was suggested at a recent meeting of the Council.

The problem of clerks and employees in downtown establishments finding a place to park their cars is also recognized, said Harvey. "Perhaps we could open the off-street parking lots to all-day parking, so they would not have to park in the street."

Whatever action is taken will

More Snow

The U.S. Weather Bureau at Escanaba reported shortly before noon today that one inch of snow has fallen within the past six hours and that more snow is coming tonight, diminishing to flurries on Thursday.

The high temperature today was 22 degrees, the wind from the southeast at 2 miles an hour, with drifting snow. The low last night was 7 degrees. The outlook for Friday is colder.

be on an emergency basis, the city manager noted.

Meanwhile Police Chief Frederick and Police Captain Richard Lundin joined in calling upon motorists to observe the rules of safety and courtesy as a means of avoiding accidents on slippery streets.

They suggested reducing speed in all driving everywhere in the city, no matter what the posted speed limit, and noted that the law and safety calls for the motorist to have his car under control at all times.

They directed attention to rules which will help alleviate the traffic problems in the city at this time of emergency—or for any season so far as that goes.

Observe traffic rules and regulations, showing respect for other drivers and to pedestrians, for "courtesy goes beyond good manners and legal requirements and is an act of kindness or a favor performed in traffic."

Circuit Court Jury Selected

A 14-member jury, including seven men and seven women, was chosen this morning in Circuit Court as Ronald J. Des- trampe, 1318 Minnesota Ave., Gladstone, went on trial for manslaughter.

Des- trampe is charged in connection with the death last May 13 of eight-year-old Douglas A. McKnight of Gladstone. The boy was killed when struck by a car driven by Des- trampe in Gladstone.

Court was recessed by Judge Bernard H. Davidson shortly before noon. The trial was scheduled to begin at 1:30 p.m.

The 14-member panel was selected to guard against members of the jury becoming ill with Hong Kong flu and disrupting the trial. Only 12 of the jurors will be asked to decide the case after testimony is completed with two persons excused in a random drawing.

Trial is expected to last several days with John Beau- champ, county prosecuting attorney, presenting the prosecution's case. Des- trampe is represented by Attorney Andrew H. Wisti of Hancock.

Before the jury was selected, 10 other persons were called and excused after questioning by the judge and attorneys.

Members of the jury are Rudolph Gafner, Marcella D. Norton, William Casey, Edward Schroeder and Tecla McMillan of Escanaba; Mary Jean Katarinic of Gladstone; Nancy Viau and Rosemary Kleinman of Bark River; Anthony Purzol of Bay de Noc Township; Thomas Flix of Ensign; Lillian Cartwright of Escanaba Township; Eunice VanElsacker of Ford River; Gerald Bazinet of Maple Ridge and Kenneth Ar- bour of Wells.

Delay Persists In Peace Talks

PARIS (AP) — A U.S. delegation spokesman clung publicly today to a faint hope that the Vietnam peace conference can be started before President Johnson leaves office in 12 days. But unofficially there is hardly a shred of hope for a start by that time.

U.S. delegation members are spending the lion's share of their time preparing the ground- work for what will happen after Richard M. Nixon becomes President Jan. 20 and a new negotiating team takes over.

There is no dialogue at the moment with the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong. But there is much for the Americans and their often balky South Vietnamese allies to talk about. The impression is that the Americans are making progress inch by inch toward some formula which can bring the adversaries face to face across some sort of table, whatever its shape may be.

South Vietnam wants no formula suggesting equal status at the table for the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front. The North Vietnamese want no formula suggesting a two-sided rather than a four-party conference. Unless this deadlock is broken, the talks cannot start.

Postpone Soo Toll Hearings

OTTAWA (AP)—The Canadian Transport Commission announced today that hearings of objections to a proposed increase in tolls on the International Bridge between Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., and Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., have been postponed. They had been scheduled to open Jan. 14.

No new date has been set. The commission said the postponement resulted from requests by groups in the area that they be given time to approach the provincial government on the matter.

The toll increase was sought by The International Bridge Authority to pay a deficit resulting from interest on Ontario government bonds.

The authority is asking for an increase from $1.25 to $1.50 on one-way tolls.

- Keep in your proper lane and allow others to pass you safely.

- Yield, never take the right of way.

- Keep your temper. Don't "fight" traffic.

- Always park so that your car does not interfere with others.

- Where the street is narrowed by snowbanks, don't park directly opposite another vehicle.

Because of the slippery condition of streets it is helpful to signal a turn well in advance. But don't forget to shut off the turn signal afterward.

Don't make sudden stops or "tail gate" the vehicle in front of you. Such acts are dangerous at any time but on icy streets it is doubly dangerous. "If real courtesy were used, accidents would be cut by more than half. Safety and courtesy go hand in hand. Slow down, be a polite driver—and a safe one," police advised.

Stock Advance Ends Quickly

NEW YORK (AP) — A technical rally in the stock market was blunted early Wednesday as traders cashed in quick profits. Trading was active.

The Dow Jones industrial average cut an early advance of 3.48 to only .37 by the end of the first hour.

Gains continued to outnumber losses by about 170 issues.

Losses of about a point were taken in active trading by Beneficial Finance, United Fruit and General Instrument.

Most gains ranged from fractions to a point or so on the Big Board.

The action was a continuation of the recovery move late Tuesday, which cut losses as the market entered a technical rebound from a greatly oversold condition.

Analysts predicted the technical recovery late Tuesday as the market was trimming losses taken in a sharp drop triggered by a rise in the prime rate—the basic lending rate by leading banks—to a record 7 per cent from the previous record 6 1/2 per cent.

Preston Child Dies Suddenly On Tuesday

Ricky Jo Preston, 15 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Preston of 801 1/2 1st Ave. S. died unexpectedly at 11 p. m. Tuesday at his home. He was born Oct. 3, 1967.

Surviving besides his parents are a sister, Linda and brother, Preston, both at home and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. William LaCour of Milwaukee. Friends may call at the Alto Funeral Home from 7 to 9 p. m. Wednesday and funeral services will be conducted at 9 a. m. Thursday at St. Joseph's Church with the Rev. Jordan Telles officiating. Burial will be in the Carney Cemetery.

Detroit Mayor To Ask Milliken's Aid In Police Funding

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh today enlisted the aid of incoming Gov. William Milliken in a campaign to get state funds to pay for 1,500 to 2,000 more Detroit policemen to curb street crime.

Cavanagh's aides said he would seek the governor's help in getting legislative approval of the necessary funds but they conceded the mayor faced an uphill fight.

The Mayor announced two weeks ago that he would seek an additional 123 policemen as soon as possible and would try to raise the city's tax rate $2.73 per $1,000 to pay for them. The 123 would bring the city's police force to 4,833 men.

The new Cavanagh proposal would be in addition to his local taxes-for-cops program.

Some sources said the addition of the 1,500 plus officers would cost between $20 million and $27 million. They said one way to get the funds would be for the Legislature to appropriate funds for local police, but restrict the money to cities of over one million population. Thus only Detroit would qualify.

Scared Robber

FREEPORT, Iowa (AP) — The holdup man who entered the Freepoint general store was unarmed save for a note demanding money.

Mrs. Jack Telford, owner of the store, said she pointed a finger at the would-be robber. "Bang! Bang!" she said. The man fled.

Hurricane Winds Hit At Boulder

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — Hurricane-force winds which peaked at more than 125 miles an hour ripped through Boulder Tuesday night, leaving mangled telephone poles, downed power lines, splintered trees and wrecked homes.

The winds were blamed for the death of James A. Madden, 28, of Greeley, Colo., killed when a pickup camper was blown off Interstate 25 north of Denver and turned over twice.

Boulder police said roofs were ripped off more than a dozen homes, countless others were denuded of shingles and several were heavily damaged by falling trees.

Eight single-engine private aircraft were destroyed at the Boulder airport. A prairie fire near the airport charred a swath five miles long and burned one unoccupied building.

Countless utility poles were blown down and half the city of 50,000 was without power. The main six-lane thoroughfare into the city was closed for several hours by downed utility poles and power lines which snapped about.

Twenty persons were treated at Community Hospital for cuts received either from wind-blown debris or when they were blown about.

Change Image In Year: Agnew

NEW YORK (AP) — Vice President-elect Spiro T. Agnew says he'll need only one year in office to erase any image of him as "the Neanderthal man."

"I fully feel," Agnew said, "that by the time a year has gone by, and I'll have been functioning in this expanded vice president's role that's been given me, and particularly in regard to intergovernmental relationships with the cities, that what I do and what I stand for is going to be so obvious that it's going to be very difficult for the people who are attempting to cast me in the role of the Neanderthal man to continue to think that way."

He made his remarks Tuesday night on the CBS television program "60 Minutes," recorded a week ago in Washington.

Agnew resigned Tuesday as Maryland's governor. Chosen as his successor by the Democratic-controlled General Assembly was Marvin Mandel, 48, speaker of the state House of Delegates.

Agnew said in the television interview he could do nothing consciously to alter his image, adding: "I think the worst mistake I could make would be to attempt to placate and satisfy my critics."

Agnew declared it is "a fiction" to say he was "jerked from a zoning board into the vice presidency."

Noting his experience as governor and county executive, he continued, "I don't think it's fair to say that suddenly a yokel has descended upon the national government."

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Kauffman returned to San Gabriel, Calif. this week after a 10 day visit with the William and James LaVigne families. Mrs. Kauffman is the former Deanna LaVigne, daughter of the William LaVignes.

Gregory Loftgren, Dave Althaus, Dave Gustafson, Joseph Pfeiff and Matt Johnson, all of Moline, Ill. were holiday guests of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Beckingham. Loftgren is Mrs. Beckingham's nephew. The young men spent their days skiing at Pine Mountain Ski Jump in Iron Mountain.

Religion classes were resumed at St. George Church on Jan. 6 and 8.

Not Too Secure

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — After officers locked a man in the city jail their embarrassment was matched by his surprise when the lock fell off the cell door as the man angrily shook the bars.

A jailer fetched a new padlock for the door, but the key broke as soon as the lock was put in service. A locksmith was finally called and, several hours later the prisoner, charged with intoxication, was considered securely confined.

Michigan Banks Expect Climb In Up Prime Rates Personal Income

By The Associated Press

Michigan banks joined others across the nation in raising their prime lending rate to a record high of 7 per cent Tuesday.

The boost, the third in just over a month, sent prices on the stock market diving for the second day in a row.

While the prime interest rate immediately affects big business, sooner or later the customer who buys and finances a car or refrigerator will feel the pinch.

In the past, banks in Detroit have not moved rates on consumer loans to correspond with increases in the prime rate, but some area bankers said the "little man" may feel the latest increases.

Consumer loans, such as those to individuals for television sets and refrigerators purchased on a monthly payment basis already total 12 to 18 per cent.

Mortgage seekers pay 6 1/2 per cent to banks and most banks will now charge 7 per cent—the maximum allowed under state usury laws.

The usury laws also limit the amount the small businessman can be charged to 7 per cent. Since in the past they have usually paid 1 per cent or more above the prime rate, they are likely to find it difficult to obtain loans.

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's Communist leaders tried to ease the blow of Josef Smrkovsky's demotion Monday night by naming another liberal to replace him.

The party's 21-member presidium recommended unanimously that Petr Colotka be appointed chairman of the nation's new Federal Assembly. Smrkovsky, president of the old National Assembly until Czechoslovakia became a federation on Jan. 1, was named Colotka's deputy chairman.

Colotka, a deputy premier and until a month ago the nation's press chief, is generally regarded as a liberal. He is a Slovak, and both the Czech and Slovak branches of the Communist party have gone on record in favor of a Slovak holding the position to give an ethnic balance in the top official rank. Smrkovsky is a Czech, and with him in the post the division was 3-1 in favor of the Czechs.

Smrkovsky accepted the party's decision in advance and urged that the public also accept it.

Detroit Flu Ends

DETROIT (AP) — The Hong Kong flu epidemic in the Detroit area appears to be over, Dr. William Lenz, epidemiologist for the City-County Health Department, said Tuesday.

Factories, hospitals and some major department stores report absenteeism is down from the peak during the Christmas and New Year's holidays, he said.

Hospital emergency rooms report few cases of suspected flu, he said, but pneumonia-influenza deaths still were running higher than normal. He added there were 120 such deaths during the week ended Jan. 4.

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's personal income is expected to climb $1.5 billion during 1969 even though many economists predict a decline in economic activity, the Department of Commerce said Tuesday.

During 1969, the department said, Michigan experienced "the best year during this entire decade with the exception of the strong year of 1965."

"Michigan will continue to register economic gains in 1969 even though a nationwide slowdown in economic activity is widely forecast for the first six months as measures to reduce inflation take hold," the department said.

William Baggs, Editor, Dies

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — William Calhoun Baggs, a newspaper editor nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize after acting as an intermediary in preliminary peace-talk negotiations between Hanoi and Washington, died Tuesday. He was 48.

Baggs, editor of the Miami News, was a persistent and articulate critic in his daily newspaper columns of President Johnson's Vietnam policy. A bomber pilot in World War II, he strenuously objected to American bombing of North Vietnam.

In January 1967 and in the spring of 1968 Baggs and Harry S. Ashmore, chairman of the executive committee of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, traveled to North Vietnam. Baggs was on the center's board.

He was the only American journalist known to have visited Hanoi twice. Last April 5 he and Ashmore returned from the North Vietnamese capital with a secret message from the Central Committee of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam to the U.S. government.

Gross State Product—(GSP)—the total value of all goods and services—is expected to increase 4.5 per cent to $41.8 billion, the department forecast. Retail sales are expected to climb 4.1 per cent to $16.65 billion.

These projections would raise substantially, the department added, if the predicted slowdown fails to materialize.

In reviewing 1968, the department said personal income payments jumped 10.3 per cent to $32.1 billion; retail sales increased 9.6 per cent to an estimated $16 billion; deposits in federal reserve system member banks jumped 16 per cent, and nonfarm employment rose by 81,000.

Upper Michigan's economy during 1969 is expected to be assisted because of a reduction in tolls across the Mackinac Bridge, organization of economic development districts and financial support of the Upper Great Lakes Regional Commission.

S.S. Kresge Will Move To Troy

DETROIT (AP) — S. S. Kresge Co., which has more than 1,000 stores coast to coast, reportedly is planning on moving its corporate headquarters from Detroit to suburban Troy in Oakland County.

Company officials denied such a decision had been made, but sources close to Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh said he had lost in an effort to interest Kresge in a piece of land in downtown Detroit.

"They needed 350,000 square feet of space on a single floor and we could not provide that type of land anywhere in the city," a city spokesman said.

He said Cavanagh sought to convince Kresge it should remain in Detroit and that a downtown urban renewal block bounded by Woodward, Larned, Bates and Congress, just north of the City-County Building, had been suggested to the company. It was turned down as being too small, he said.

Rev. Levin To Head Advisory Committee

Rev. Ingmar Levin heads a slate of pro-tem officers selected during the organizational meeting of the Board of Education Citizens Advisory Committee Monday night.

Rev. Levin will serve as chairman, Mrs. York Anderson, vice chairman, and Mrs. Paul Olson, recorder, of a steering committee to direct and activate the effectiveness of the group. The Committee, composed of 17 area citizens, all consented to serve to implement educational programs and make recommendations to the Area Board of Education.

Supt. Edwin E. Wuehle, chairing the meeting before Pastor Levin's selection, told the group they were actually an "overall" committee and would concern themselves with four areas of interest, all inter-related.

Mrs. LeBrasseur Authors Article In Detroit News

Mrs. Katharine LeBrasseur, 518 Range St., is the author of a feature story which appeared in last Sunday's "Passing Show" section of the Detroit News.

Mrs. LeBrasseur's article reveals the background of the well-known "Tramp" statue which has stood in the yard of the old Hovey Resort on Indian Lake since 1938.

According to Mrs. LeBrasseur, the "Tramp" is an unflattering deliberate likeness of former Mayor Fred W. Gage of Battle Creek who incurred the wrath of a hotel and bar owner, "Pump" Arnold of Battle Creek. The revengeful Arnold commissioned the statue to further vent his anger and dislike of the Mayor.

The late Charles S. Hovey was given the statue by the original owner and placed it in the yard of his resort, where it has remained for the past 30 years.

No clowns. No hoopla. No funny hats.

This is an event for the serious car buyer. The man who has X number of dollars to spend and is determined to get his money's worth and maybe more.

Come to a Chevrolet Showroom during our Value Showdown.

Ask the man to show you, on paper, how you can order most any 1969 Chevrolet with a big V8 and automatic transmission for less than you could last year.

Come in and spend some time. Dig, probe, ask questions, take notes. You owe it to yourself to be thorough. Go for a drive.

Get a free sample of Chevrolet's luxurious full-coil, cushioned ride. Shut the windows and see how fresh the interior stays, thanks to Astro Ventilation. Feel the kick of the biggest standard V8 in our field.

Then go down the street or across town and see how we stack up against Those Other Cars.

We think you'll wind up with a Chevy.

More people do, you know.

Putting you first, keeps us first.

The Chevrolet Value Showdown is on.

U.S. Males Protest Minibikini Ruling

NEW YORK (AP) — A random survey in American cities today found scant support—especially among men—for an Australian ruling that minibikinis must measure at least two inches at the hip.

"The less the merrier!" commented George Winship, 31, a commercial artist in New York City.

"If they have something to show off, let them go ahead," said Chuck Edmonds, 22, of Los Alamos, N.M., a senior at the University of Utah. "Anybody who complains is probably jealous or fat."

Seek Asylum

"I think they should raise the limit and force all Australian girls with minibikinis to seek asylum on U.S. beaches," said dock jockey Robert L. Zimmer, 22, in Phoenix, Ariz.

"It sounds like a rule passed by sex-starved beach inspectors," said Reed R. Anderson, 24, a sales representative of Rosemead, Calif.

Actually the ruling made by Sydney, Australia, authorities recently has left both beach inspectors and many girls pointing.

The inspectors were at first delighted, leaping to their job with zeal but then learned that if they measured the costume while it is on the girl they could be brought up for technical assault.

Moaned one inspector, "How can we do our duty?"

No Freedom

And the Aussie girls, crowding the summertime beaches, were also dismayed. "I think it is dreadful," said Marijka Vos, 20, a 36-24-36 model. "There is no freedom left in the world."

Many American girls shared her antiruling sentiment.

Gail Burns, 23, a very slender, leggy 5-foot-8 Miami girl said she would stick with the smaller bikinis, adding, "If they would arrest me for that, I'd have to be a test case."

"If you have the figure for a bikini," said shapely Judi Daniel, 22, a reporter in Dallas, "I

Too Small

Ingrid Meyer, 25, a Chicago secretary, agreed: "Two inches at the hips? You know that's pretty small. That's like a string!"

Said 65-year-old Dmitri Vail, a Dallas portrait artist: "I don't know why they're quibbling over fractions of an inch! Like the strip-tease queens say about their costumes, 'They're just binding.'"

Marine 1st Lt. Stephen C. Riggs, 24, of Arcadia, Calif., raised a question: "Why measure it at the hip? It's certainly not essential there. It doesn't seem like two inches at the hip would make any difference in the vital areas."

And in Pasadena, Carol Belmont, 22, an x-ray technician, seemed to sum things up when she said, "It all depends on the size of the hips. On some women two inches wouldn't cover a freckle."

Legion Auxiliary Plans For Mid-Winter Meeting

Mrs. Carrie Larsen, president of the American Legion Auxiliary Unit 82 of Escanaba conducted the meeting held last evening in the Legion club-rooms.

Mrs. Chris Jensen served as chairman for the evening assisted by Mrs. Ceal McNaughton and Mrs. Alma Johnson. May 22, 23 and 24 were announced as, "Poppy Days," with Mrs. Sue Lindstrom, chairman.

Two girls will be sponsored from Unit 82 to attend the American Legion Auxiliary Girls' State June 15 to 22. Mrs. Roman Gill is chairman.

Members reported ill are Mrs. Evelyn Schmeltzer and Mrs. Signe Nerbonne both patients at St. Francis Hospital and Mrs. Martha Baldwin who is a patient at the Menominee Nursing Home, 501 1st St., Menominee.

The mid-winter conference will be held in Negaunee on Jan. 31, Feb. 1, 2. Delegates nominated are Rose Olsen and Olive Gifford and alternates, Dorothy Boyle and Hilda Priestner.

February 3 will be the next meeting with Dorothy Boyle as chairman assisted by Vina Oiser, Sphronna Baldwin, Carrie Larsen and Agnes Wood. The St. Patrick Girl Scouts and Brownie Troops will present a flag ceremony.

Mrs. Donald Demeuse (Gordon Nelson Studio)

Nancy Mattonen Bride Of Donald L. Demeuse

Nancy Carol Mattonen of Wells became the bride of Donald Lee Demeuse of Rte. 1, Gladstone during a double ring ceremony performed Saturday, Dec. 28 at St. Anthony's Church in Wells.

The Rev. Norbert Freiburger officiated at the nuptials at 12 noon. Tom and Keith Demeuse, cousins of the bridegroom served the Mass.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilho Mattonen of 106 S. 5th St., Wells and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. George Demeuse of Rte. 1, Gladstone.

Maid of honor for the bride was Linda Demeuse of Gladstone and bridesmaids were Mrs. James Minor of Gladstone, sister of the bride and Mrs. George Spaulding, sister of the bridegroom.

Crystal Pleats
They were identically attired in floor length gold gowns fashioned with a yellow orchid.

Cluster Headpiece
A forward cluster headpiece for her bouffant illusion veil and she carried bouquet of white carnations and ivy centered with a yellow orchid.

Serving as bestman was George Ketchum, an uncle of the bridegroom and groomsmen were James Minor and George Spaulding. Seating the guests were Gary Tuskin and Richard Terrien.

Debra Minor of Gladstone, a niece of the bride, was the flower girl and was attired in a miniature replica of the bride's gown. Steven Demeuse of Gladstone, a cousin of the bridegroom, carried the rings.

Mothers' Attire
Mrs. Mattonen wore for her daughter's wedding a pink crepe and chiffon dress with matching accessories and Mrs. Demeuse selected a gold metallic dress also with matching accessories. Both mothers were presented cymbidium orchid corsages.

The reception was held from 4 to 8 p. m. at the Gladstone Legion Hall with a dance following. After a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, the couple will reside at 307 N. 11th St., Escanaba.

Sweet potato, preserved in a clear, sugar syrup, was a royal sweetmeat in Siam long before Anna arrived to teach the King's children. The candy is still made in much of the East Indies but no longer at extravagant cost. Sugar, once so dearly priced even where grown, as in Siam, is one of today's lowest-cost foods.

Flowers Bloom At American Designer Showing

NEW YORK (AP) — The woman who wants a lushly growing garden this spring doesn't need a green thumb. Just a green bank account.

Flowers of all sizes, shapes and varieties bloomed in profusion Tuesday at the American Designer showing of spring fashions for some 200 reporters from all parts of the country.

George Stavropoulos, the Greek-born ready-to-wear designer, showed white organza dresses with appliqued flowers—tulips, daisies, roses and dogwoods. Styles varied—one was a satin-trimmed shirtwaist, one a paneled sheath. The posies were priced high, however. Stavropoulos clothes run into four figures retail.

Almost all of Stavropoulos' costumes were classic and simple, with style depending on cut, rather than gimmicks.

Pants were not really pants—instead they were draped dresses, unseamed, carefully cut to give the appearance of slacks. Silhouettes came from the 1940's. One highlight was an orange, scarf dress, knotted in front below the hips, with an uneven hemline.

Chester Weinberg also grew a garden of flowers, most of them in pale pastel overall prints, blooming widely on jump suits or evening dresses.

Other Weinberg trademarks included enormous wing sleeves on both short and long dresses, and some of them with hoods; coolie hats which matched or contrasted with costumes; and obi inset waistbands of fabrics matching the dresses.

Both designers drew from the entire rainbow for their colors. Stavropoulos particularly favored bright blues, bright green and a bright red he called persimmon.

Letter Of Laughter

Dear Heloise:
Just had a thought... But now I've forgotten what it was. Can you give me a hint?
I'm completely lost.

M. J. West

Dear Heloise:

When I want to oil where the spout of my oil can won't reach, I take a broom straw and put the end where I want the oil to go. Then bend it slightly, put a drop of oil on the straw and presto, it runs right down and goes where it should.

Mrs. Townner

Dear Heloise:

Here's a hint for people who must avoid excess sugar and fat in their diets:

Any restaurant will serve a salad without dressing. For tossed salads and some fruit salads, I ask for a cruet of vinegar and a small glass or cup. I pour about an ounce and a half of the vinegar into the glass and add artificial sweetening tablets.

These dissolve rapidly and makes a delicious sweet-sour non-fat dressing with no calories. Vary the number of tablets to suit your own taste.

MIAMI — And where are the Green Bay Packers? Down here at the scene of the Superfluous Bowl somebody, it seems, is missing this year.

That man with the gaps between his teeth and the Oriental countenance, his eminence Vincent Lombardi, is not coaching the team that will win.

In his place is a young, chisel-faced coach, and in place of the Packers are a group of men unified under the name of the Baltimore Colts.

Credit Don Shula, the young man with the chiseled features. He is intense, he is inventive, he is dominating. And he is able to get along with his owner. As George Allen knows, it is possible to do all the others and win and still not get along with the majority stockholder.

Don Shula, if he had been born sooner, or if he had been invisible, today could be coach of the Detroit Lions? There were those years of the early 1960s when the Lions were close to being champions. Those were years when, as now, there was no offense. The Lions existed on defense alone.

For three years, 1960, 1961 and 1962, Don Shula coached the Lions' defense. At one time, a move was started among the Lions' multitude of stockholders to promote Shula to head coach. George Wilson would have been taken care of and Shula would have run the club.

This was before Bill Ford purchased all the stock. But when the forces behind Shula came close to victory, there was a counterattack on behalf of Wilson. Shula, it was decided, was too young at the time to be a head coach. He was a genius of 31, idolized by his defensive players. But he did not get the promotion because of his age.

A year or so later when the Lions, the broken hearted Lions of 1962, returned from the Runnerup Bowl here, the Colts pirated Shula away. He was turning 33 at the time they made him their head coach.

It was in 1962 that Don Shula first learned of the deep frustrations of not quite winning in football. What occurred in the fourth game of that season has affected everything that has happened to the Lions since. In that fourth game, at Green Bay, Milt Plum became an outcast on his own ballclub.

Ever since, Don Shula was a game or two away from winning championships. Until now when he succeeded Lombardi as coach of the NFL's team in the Super Bowl.

Part of the irony of the whole bit is Shula's quarterback in the Super Bowl will be our old friend, Earl Morrall. Remember those old days when Earl would rescue Plum nearly every Sunday in Detroit.

How close Morrall was in not going to the Colts this year.

It was August of 1968 when Shula was approached regarding Morrall. He was shopping for a reserve quarterback for the Colts. The Giants were trying to rid themselves of Morrall and at the same time desired a running back. They wanted Timmy Brown from the Colts.

"They're going to have to give me more than Morrall if they want Brown," said Don Shula before an exhibition game in Nashville.

Shula finally agreed that a fourth-round draft choice was equitable payment for Morrall.

"I was thinking about retiring this year," Earl Morrall told me while he awaited the Super Bowl. "That was when I went to camp with the Giants and just stood around. But then I decided I loved this game too much to retire and stayed."

His decision can be valued at $24,000.

Our state can be proud of the talent it produced for the current production of the Super Bowl. Specifically, Michigan State can be tremendously proud. In addition to Morrall on the Colts, former Spartans include Baltimore's Bubba Smith and Paul Rochester, Dave Herman and Jeff Richardson of the Jets. Michigan sent Rick Volk to the Colts and Northern Michigan sent Bill Rademacher to the Jets.

That comes out to seven players from our colleges among the 20 athletes in the Super Bowl.

Special notice must be given on your TV sets of Herman trying to block Bubba away from Joe Namath.

Prediction: Colts and Morrall, 45; Jets and Namath, 10.

Pistons Record 117-114 Victory

By The Associated Press

The Detroit Pistons had to fight through three rallies and a full-court press late in the game by the Philadelphia 76ers Tuesday night, but diligence and 22 points by Howard Komives helped gain a 117-114 National Basketball Association victory.

Finally, a 10-foot jump shot by Dave Bing produced the first victory in the last four games for the often sparkless Pistons.

In other games, the Los Angeles Lakers unleashed 6-foot-7 Elgin Baylor, just back after the flu, to take a 100-93 victory over the eastern division leaders, the Baltimore Bullets; Milwaukee stopped Cincinnati 116-101; Chicago edged New York 102-101, halting a 10-game Knickerbocker winning streak; Phoenix topped Seattle 116-112 and San Diego defeated San Francisco 113-108.

Philadelphia's full-court press in the third quarter cost Detroit an eight-point lead, but the Pistons bounced back to build a 12-point lead, 78-66.

Again the 76ers pressed, scor-

Hayes Retains Lead In Scoring

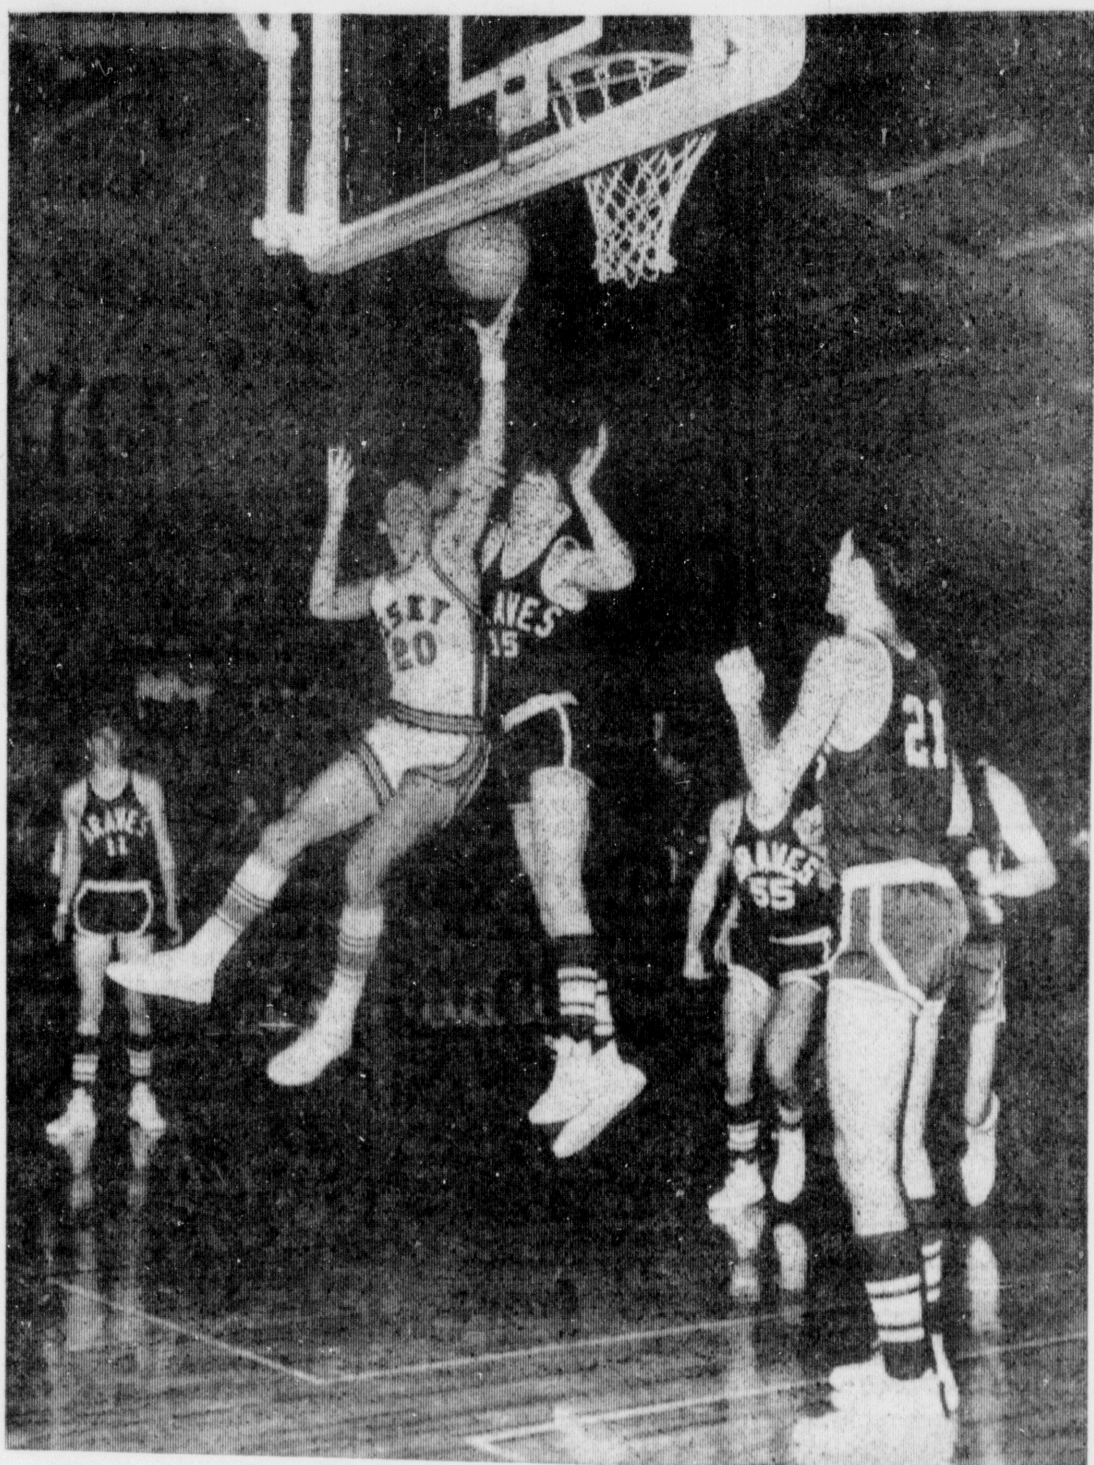

NEW YORK (AP) — Elvin Hayes, San Diego's sensational rookie, and a pair of veterans — Oscar Robertson and Wilt Chamberlain — continue to dominate the statistics at the mid-season point of the National Basketball Association campaign.

Hayes, the Rockets 6-foot-9 center, has a commanding lead in the scoring race with 1,226 points and a 30.7 per game average through games of Sunday night. He also ranks third in rebounds with 711.

Chamberlain, of Los Angeles, has hit 305 of 519 shots from the field for the best percentage, 588, and also leads in rebounding 842, and rebounding average 20.5.

Robertson, Cincinnati's playmaker, leads in assists, 372 for a 9.8 per game average, is second in scoring, 1,034 points, and third in free throw percentage, .850.

Larry Siegfried of Boston leads in free throw percentage with 189 of 221 for .855.

Coaches Voice Praises For Super Bowl Squads

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — The oddsmakers say the Baltimore Colts are an 18-point better football team than the New York Jets. But you never would guess it from talking with Weeb Ewbank. Neither would you, for that matter, after listening to Don Shula.

The two head coaches, Ewbank of the American League champion Jets and Shula of the National League's kingpin Colts, were loud in praise of each other's troops today as they talked of pro football's Super Bowl in Miami's nearby Orange Bowl Sunday.

"We have come a long way since the start of the season," said Ewbank as he talked of the chance of an AFL team coming out on top in this third clash between the champions of the two leagues. The NFL, represented by the Green Bay Packers, won the first two handily against Kansas City in 1967 and Oakland last year.

About the time Ewbank was heaping praise on his quarterback, two of several top flight runners and a trio of brilliant pass catchers in George Sauer, Don Maynard and Pete Lammons, Shula was getting in a good word for the Jets at the Colts' headquarters a half-mile away.

Shula, who also had praise for the Jets' linebackers, likened the New York front wall to the great Packers, defense of recent years. "All are quick and agile," he added. "The Jets all have been strong offensively. Now they have added a great defense."

"We don't see many of the types of defense used by the Jets in our league. Yes, we came down here expecting a real football game and I can't see us 18-point favorite."

Ewbank also compared favorably the Colts with Green Bay's great championship teams.

"They've had a fine football team for three years," he said. "And this year they've had the determination not to let the setbacks of the previous two years distract them."

"But I would add, I think we are the best AFL team to play in the Super Bowl. I wouldn't have said it earlier in the season but I'll say it now."

Broncos Score Overtime Win

BARK RIVER — Overtime victories are becoming quite the thing at Bark River-Harris High School this season and if there are any more the fans might not be able to take it.

The Broncos recorded their second overtime victory last night, a 67-66 triumph over the Big Bay de Noc Black Bears, in a game played at the Bark River-Harris High School gym and left the Broncos with a 5-2 mark on the season. Earlier this season the Broncos nipped Hermansville 51-47 in an overtime.

Bark River's Tom Ray tied the score at 65-65 in the final seconds of play in regulation play and also scored the winning points in the overtime period with a field goal. Ray finished the night with 16 points and 26 rebounds.

Pacing the Bark River attack were Alex Jorasz with 19 points and John Jorasz with 18. Big Bay's Bill Hartman topped all point-getters in the game with 26 points and his younger brother, Kim, added 17. John Lewandowski also hit in double figures for the Black Bears with 10 points.

The Bark River-Harris Junior Varsity recorded a 57-34 victory in the preliminary contest.

Bench Support Aids Braves In Victory

Strong bench support paid off in victory for the Gladstone Braves last night as they were able to hold off several second half rallies by the Escanaba Eskymos to score a 74-63 triumph before a packed house at the Escanaba Area High School gymnasium.

Eric Trichel, making his first start of the season, and Don Harris and Steve Maniaci coming off the bench when Gladstone starters got into foul trouble all responded with timely points and important rebounds in the victory.

Both teams appeared to be tight in the first quarter as the score was tied three times in the opening six minutes without many points being scored. Only a five point spurge by Gladstone center John Watson in the final two minutes enabled the Braves to escape with a 12-9 lead when the quarter ended. Escanaba led at one point, 7-5, the only time in which they had the lead in the whole game.

Gladstone rallied to an 11-point lead in the first three minutes of the second period with Trichel leading the way by scoring six points in the rally. Escanaba closed the gap to three points, 30-27, later in the period on some fine shooting and rebounding by Tom Kangas and John Moberg, but the Braves still managed to hold a 36-29 advantage at intermission.

The Braves were able to go out in front by as much as nine points in the third quarter with Watson, Mark Weber and Steve Nelson doing most of the damage. Escanaba managed to cut the gap once again on the age, 55-49, as the teams were ready to begin play in the fourth quarter.

Free throws played a big part in the final period as the Eskymos managed to cut Gladstone's lead to two points on a scoring of Moberg and Dan Mylander, who scored 10 and 8 points respectively in the period, but the Braves still maintained a six-point advantage of free throws by Jim Olsen and three by Bob Gauthier. With about three minutes left in the game, Gladstone still held a 63-61 lead. Nelson then led a Gladstone rally with six points to help the Braves build their lead back up to 11 points while the Eskymos were held scoreless until the final 30 seconds of play. Gladstone hit six for seven attempts at the gift line in the final minute and a half of play to take the lead.

Nelson led all scorers in the game with 19 points and Trichel added 14 points. Weber 13 and Watson 10. Escanaba was led by Moberg with 18 points, Mylander with 14 and Kangas with 11. Trichel hit on six of eight field goal attempts in his first starting role.

Nelson also hauled in 20 rebounds to lead the Braves to a big advantage in that department, 61-42. Maniaci chipped in with 12 and 10 rebounds respectively to give the Braves the board power. Kangas led Escanaba with 17 rebounds and Moberg, playing his finest game of the season, was able to grab 13.

The Gladstone Junior Varsity halted the Escanaba JV's winning streak at three games with a 39-31 victory in the preliminary game and Gladstone was also able to score a 53-43 triumph in the freshmen game.

Tigers Topple Carney, 66-56

CARNEY — The Powers-Spalding Tigers extended their victory string to three games last night as they were able to hand the Carney Wolves their second defeat of the 1968-69 season, 66-56, and cut their victory string at three games.

The Tigers hit on 56 per cent of their field goal attempts in the game, 28 for 50, in registering the triumph while Carney could only manage 23 of 74 shots from the field for 31 per cent.

Five Powers-Spalding players hit double figures with Dick Smith and Kim Riedy paving the way with 15 points each. Jack Fleetwood and Bob Mileski chipped in with 12 points each and Jim Charles added 10 in the winning cause.

Carney's Tim Moran led all scorers in the game with 20 points and teammate Dennis Lundquist tossed in 15 to lead the Wolves' attack. Carney managed to hold a slight edge in the rebounding department, 35-33.

The Powers-Spalding Junior varsity registered a 75-30 victory in the preliminary game.

Redskins Notch One-Point Win

CHAMPION — John Dani's two free throws in the final minute of play gave the Hermansville Redskins a 68-67 victory over Champion in a Class D clash at the Champion High School gym last night.

Champion had a chance to tie the score seconds later but only one of two free throw attempts was made and the Redskins were able to escape with the one-point victory.

Both teams hit on 26 attempts from the field and the difference came at the free throw line where Hermansville scored on 16 of 24 attempts and Champion made 15 of 26.

Dani finished the night with 23 points, high for the Redskins, while teammates Marc Maga and Rick Arduin chipped in with 10 points apiece.

Champion's Larry Laitala scored 13 field goals and nine free throws for 35 points to top all scorers in the game and a pair of teammates, Steve Eliason and Gary Danielson, helped out with 10 points each.

The Champion JV's scored a 65-43 triumph in the preliminary game.

Michigan Coach Picks Grid Aides

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan's new head football coach Glenn "Bo" Schembechler today named six of his former assistants at Miami University of Oxford, Ohio to join his 10-man staff.

The appointments complete the staff that includes Schembechler and three coaches retained from last year's Michigan squad.

Those named today were Jim Young, head defensive coach at Miami last season; Jerry Hanlon, offensive line coach; Chuck Stobart, offensive backfield coach; Larry Smith, end coach; Gary Moeller, freshman coach; and Dick Hunter, defensive backfield coach.

Schembechler said he hasn't set specific jobs of the new assistants.

Michigan Athletic Director Don Canham named Schembechler as head coach Dec. 27 to replace Chalmers "Bump" Elliott who became the university's associate athletic director for intercollegiate athletics.

Purdue, Michigan Tied For Big Ten Cage Lead

CHICAGO (AP) — Rick Mount poured in 37 points and shattered the ratings Tuesday night as he led Purdue to a 98-84 victory over previously undefeated and fourth ranked Illinois.

The victory left Purdue in a first place tie with Michigan in the Big Ten race. Michigan scored an 89-87 overtime victory over Indiana.

The Wolverines have now won two straight and both triumphs have come in overtime.

Michigan edged Iowa 99-92 in its opener and then went into overtime to defeat Indiana Tuesday night as Rudy Tomjanovich tied a Wolverine record by scoring 48 points. The former mark was held by Cazzie Russell when he played for Michigan.

Purdue gave the rankings a jolt by whipping Illinois and the Boilermakers will stay on top in the Big Ten for nearly two weeks since they will be idle until they face Minnesota Jan. 25.

Illinois gave the Boilermakers a battle and came off a 13-point deficit to take 51-47 lead in the second half. But Purdue took charge after that and Illinois' winning streak came to an end.

Mount's 37 points were far and away high for the Boilermakers while George Faerber added 17. Dave Scholz was high for Illinois with 23 and Mike Price followed with 22.

Reserve forward Bob Sullivan's two free throws with 10 seconds left gave Michigan its dramatic overtime triumph over Indiana and Michigan State battered Wisconsin 77-67 to end a five-game losing streak.

Lee Lafayette and Harrison Stepler paced Michigan State with 20 points each while new coach John Powless yanked his first stringers and claimed he got more hustle from his second five.

Big Ten teams will be idle until Saturday when Indiana goes to Iowa, Michigan invades Minnesota, Wisconsin advances on Ohio State and Illinois goes to Northwestern in a regionally televised matinee.

Hull Holds Lead In Scoring Race

NEW YORK (AP) — Bobby Hull, Chicago's dynamic left winger, held a four-point lead over Detroit's Gordie Howe in the National Hockey League's individual scoring race Monday and is virtually assured of receiving the $500 award for being the pacesetter for the first half of the season.

Both the Hawks and the Red Wings have played 38 games and have reached the season's halfway mark. However, Phil Esposito of Boston, deadlocked for third place, still has a chance to move up. The Bruins have played 36 games. A cash prize of $250 is given to the runner-up.

Hull has 56 points on 27 goals and 29 assists. Howe's total is 52 points on 18 goals and 34 assists while Esposito and Chicago's Stan Mikita are tied with 49 points each.

Veterans Jacques Plante and Glenn Hall of St. Louis still have the lowest combined goals-against average, 2.11. They will share $250 for leading in the Vezina Trophy race at the halfway point.

Gladstone Men Win At Dunbar

DUNBAR, Wis.—Two Gladstone men—Don Bugay and Nick Knaul—were among top prize winners at the Sportsman's International Snowmobile Championships last weekend at the Dunbar airstrip.

Bugay won both the Class D Stock and Class 3 Modified events in the cross country competition, while Knaul won the Class 2 Modified and finished second in the Class B Stock sections.

In the oval race program, Bugay also won the Class 3 Modified event.

Ken Mattison of Amberg, Wis., won three events and also took the grand championship races Sunday, which was limited to drivers who had already won another event.

Seventy-two drivers competed for $2,000 in prize money. Some 5,000 spectators watched the two days of racing.

Wire Service, AP Disagree

NEW YORK (AP) — Federal mediator George Byrnes adjourned negotiations between The Associated Press and the Wire Service Guild early today to reconvene at 4 p.m.

During Tuesday's bargaining the Guild submitted new proposals on wages, the union shop, life insurance, vacations, holidays, and other items including a 37½-hour, five-day week.

The Associated Press rejected the Guild proposal saying it far exceeded the $5.7-million package which was the AP's final offer and it contained totally unacceptable union shop provisions.

The union, Wire Service Guild Local 222, has rejected AP's offer of a three-year contract providing for increases up to $48, bringing top minimums to $250 weekly for newsmen. The offer also contained improved pension benefits.

The Guild turned down Tuesday a management proposal for a four-day extension of the contract which was to expire at midnight Dec. 31. It has been extended on a day-to-day basis.

An Associated Press spokesman said that in the event of a strike basic services in general news, sports, financial and photos would be continued. The Guild said it had obtained strike authorization.

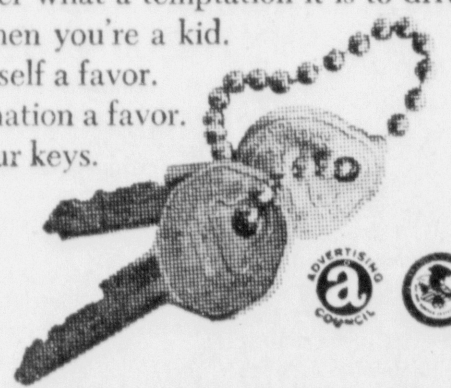

Why the average car thief looks so young.

Ever seen a typical car thief? For openers, he looks scared. And he looks like a kid...because most cars are stolen by kids under 18.

Our teen-agers. Every day, they steal 1,000 cars. Because we—you and I—make it easy for them.

We leave the keys in the car. Because we're too busy to take them with us. And maybe—just maybe—because we can't remember what a temptation it is to drive a car when you're a kid.

Do yourself a favor. Do the nation a favor. Take your keys.

Don't help a boy go wrong. When you leave your car, take your keys.

Sacred Heart Convent Closing

GROSSE POINTE (AP)—The Convent of the Sacred Heart, for 84 years a massive Grosse Pointe landmark, will close in June.

The school, located on a 22-acre tract, with an enrollment of nearly 400 this year, has educated thousands of Detroit area girls including Charlotte and Anne Ford, daughters of Henry Ford II of the Ford Motor Co.

Sister Margaret Mary Coakley superior of the New York province, said realignment of operations and the reallocation of personnel forced the closure. The president of the convent's Mothers' Club added: "there aren't enough nuns to give the students the kind of schooling they're in the religious life to give."

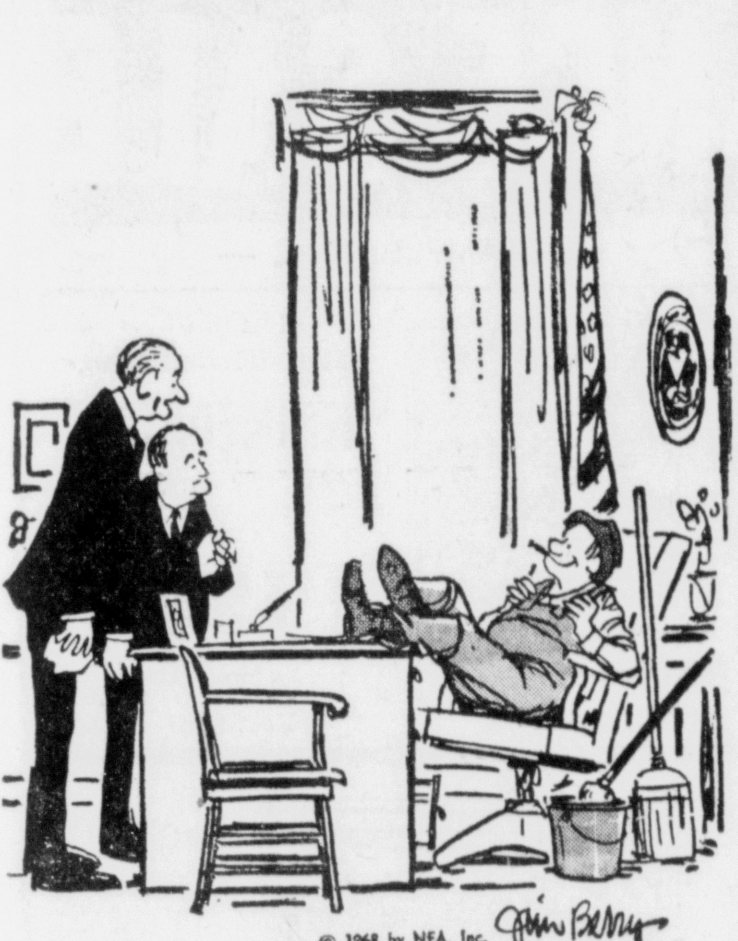

The Convent plans a public discussion of the closing this week, as students began preparations for moving to other Sacred Heart schools and parents prepared to voice their disappointment.

A graduate predicted parents and alumna would strongly protest the move. One mother said "basically what the nuns do is teach a girl that there's a great deal of dignity being a mother and wife and in upholding the Judeo-Christian ethic." She added "I feel there's a place for a school like this, particularly with this so-called new morality that we have."

The society was founded in 1800 in France by Ste. Madeleine Sophie Barat, coming to America in 1819 and to Detroit in 1851. The convent is the second-oldest building in Grosse Pointe Farms.

Tuition ranged in steps of $100

BERRY'S WORLD

"You did a good job of taking care of things around here, while we were down with the flu, but..."

Wake Your Own Peace

You can say anything you want about the world. You can say it's beyond help. That man is more evil than good. That you never asked for the world you got. And you could be right. You can say anything you want about the Peace Corps. That it's just do-gooders. That it doesn't help peace. That it hasn't made any difference. The Peace Corps isn't disagreeing. That's not what it's about. The Peace Corps doesn't shout, "Come make peace." Peace doesn't come that easily. It's more of a separate peace. Maybe yours. No banners. No bands. No medals. The Peace Corps might be for you if you could enjoy fading children. Or repairing a tractor. Or teaching birth control. Or building a schoolhouse. Even if no one ends up using it. (Don't think it hasn't happened.) The Peace Corps has no delusions of grandeur. Ask anyone who's been in it. But there are enough people who come out of the Peace Corps with things they've learned they can't forget. Good things. There are more ways than you can find to help the world. The Peace Corps is just one way. It's for someone who would rather do something. Anything. Instead of nothing. It could be your way.

Card of Thanks

Casey

I wish to thank all my well wishers for the many cards, masses and gifts I received while a patient at St. Francis Hospital. A special thanks to the staff on the second floor. Your kindness will always be remembered.

Mrs. Wm. (Rose) Casey

LeQuia

We wish to thank our friends, neighbors and relatives for their kindness and sympathy in our bereavement, the death of our dear husband and father, Edward LeQuia. We are grateful to Father Stephen Mayrand for his comforting words, to the pallbearers, to those who sent flowers, spiritual bouquets, mementos and to anyone who helped in any way. Your kindness will never be forgotten.

The Family Of Edward LeQuia

Praznik

We take this means to extend our heartfelt thanks for the kindness and sympathy shown us by neighbors, relatives and friends in the death of our beloved husband and father, Frank Praznik. A special word of appreciation for the floral tributes and the memorial gifts. To Rev. Robert Haas for his words of comfort and to the choir for their beautiful songs. Your kindness will always be held in grateful remembrance.

The Family Of Frank Praznik Sr.

Sundling

We wish to thank our friends, neighbors and relatives for their kindness and sympathy in our bereavement, the death of our dear husband and father, Wendell Sundling. We are grateful to Rev. Levin for his comforting words, to the pallbearers, to those who sent floral and spiritual bouquets, those who offered the use of their cars.

Mrs. Wendell Sundling

Siamese Twins, Mother, 16, Well

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Siamese twin boys and their 16-year-old mother were reported in satisfactory condition early today at Mobile General Hospital.

The infants, born shortly before noon Monday, weighed a total of 10 pounds five ounces. They were joined at the abdomen.

Dr. Hollis Wiseman, co-director of pediatrics at the hospital said the infants are being cared for in the pediatrics intensive care unit and are being studied for consideration of surgical separation at a later date.

Physician Shortage Most Acute In U.P.

Michigan is starting the year 1969 short of more than 2,000 medical doctors, according to vital health statistics just released by the National Center for Health Statistics, U.S. Public Health Service, Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Michigan now has a ratio of 123.5 doctors of medicine per 100,000 residents compared to a U.S. ratio of 141.5 doctors of medicine per 100,000 residents. Michigan now has 10,541 M.D.s and should have approximately 12,750 to equal the national ratio.

Comparative sampling of Michigan counties and the number of physicians in ratio to population reveals Delta County people have about one-half the doctors they should have—if Wayne County is an example of adequate number.

| County | Population | Physician |
|-------------|------------|-----------|
| Delta | 34,000 | 1,478 |
| Wayne | 2,670,000 | 721 |
| Alger | 8,400 | 1,680 |
| Houghton | 34,000 | 1,308 |
| Luce | 7,500 | 536 |
| Mackinac | 10,800 | 1,200 |
| Marquette | 63,500 | 1,134 |
| Menominee | 25,000 | 2,500 |
| Schoolcraft | 8,000 | 1,333 |

It should be noted that Luce is unusually fortunate, statistically at least, because of the large number of resident physicians at the State Hospital there; while Menominee is less fortunate statistically because many of the physicians serving the area reside in Marinette.

Seeking Physicians

Although Michigan has gained 1,723 medical doctors and 647 osteopathic doctors in the past 10 years, the recently completed Michigan Health Council Study of Medical Manpower in 14 Southwestern Michigan counties showed a need for 99 more family physicians and 180 more medical specialists and an estimated need for 2,000 more M.D.s throughout Michigan.

The Michigan Health Council now has 150 Michigan communities that are seeking from one to many family physicians and 60 that are seeking from one to many medical specialists. Nearly all of these communities have specified that they want a doctor of medicine; however, three or four of some of the smaller communities have indicated a willingness to have either a medical doctor or a young osteopathic doctor locate in their towns.

The study disclosed that Michigan has 4,426 doctors of dentistry—3,951 of whom are in active practice. The national ratio is 53 dentists per 100,000 population. Michigan, with two large dental schools at the University of Michigan and the University of Detroit, has a ratio of 52 dentists per 100,000 with 47 active, compared to only 46 active per 100,000 on the national basis.

The study shows that Michigan has 23,447 registered and employed nurses, or 277 per 100,000 population. There are 613,198 registered and employed nurses in the United States, or 313 per 100,000 population. The great problem in Michigan is insufficient nursing faculty in community colleges, diploma and nursing colleges to accept a larger number of the Michigan students who are qualified and interested in entering nursing.

Recommendations

Michigan now has 5,685 registered pharmacists—5,175 of whom are in active practice, or a ratio of 61.1 active pharmacists per 100,000 population. There are 122,421 active pharmacists in the United States or a ratio of 61.6 active pharmacists per 100,000 nationally. Michigan has three large pharmaceutical schools at Ferris State College, the University of Michigan and Wayne State University.

In reviewing the results of the new Study of Medical and Health Manpower, John A. Doherty, executive director of the Michigan Health Council made the following observations and recommendations:

- The University of Michigan Medical School and Wayne State University School of Medicine should be encouraged to accept every qualified student from Michigan, and special consideration and financial assistance should be given to students coming from inner cities and rural areas.
- Our medical practice act must be studied and updated so that red tape is eliminated making it possible for physicians leaving military service or qualified American trained physicians from other states to be licensed without great delay or expense.
- So that Michigan can attain a ratio more closely in line with California's 184 per 100,000, New York's 222, Pennsylvania's 161, Maryland's 177, and Indiana's 198, we must increase our medical school classes so that we are graduating a minimum of 500 to 600 doctors of medicine annually instead of 275 to 325 as we are doing at the present time.

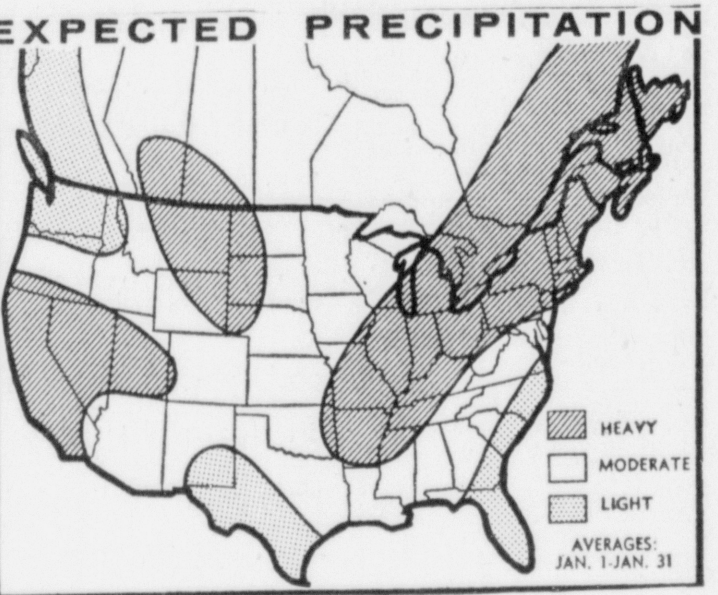

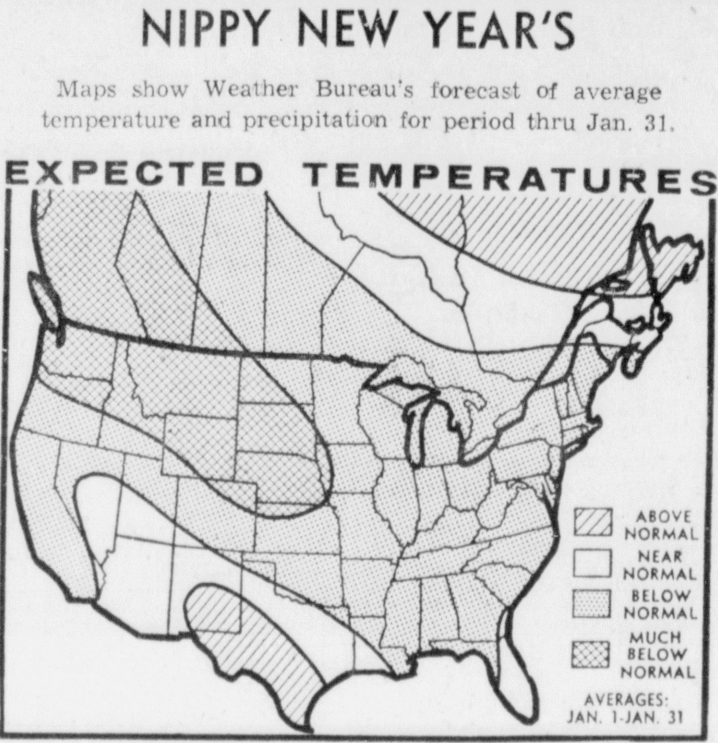

Credit Cards To Come Under Fire

WASHINGTON (AP) — A review of consumer credit—perhaps dealing with unsolicited credit cards—is promised by a Missouri congressman with two vantage points from which to look at credit problems.

Rep. Leonor K. Sullivan, a Democrat, is chairman of the House Banking Subcommittee on Consumer Affairs and a member of the new Commission on Consumer Protection.

The Commission, she said, will undertake "a review of the entire area of consumer credit. The matter of unsolicited credit cards might very well be one of the major items we look into."

She is especially worried about unsolicited credit cards. "I believe in convenience in shopping," she said, "but we are going absolutely haywire. Not only are these things being sent out unsolicited, but some of them are coming in unsealed envelopes."

Investigate Similar Air Crashes

BRADFORD, Pa. (AP)—Was there a common cause for the crash of two Allegheny Airlines planes near here under almost identical conditions and less than two weeks apart?

That is a riddle that government investigators hoped to solve as they worked today seeking to find what caused the crash of the second plane.

Eleven persons were killed and 17 injured Monday night when the twin-engine Convair 580 propjet crashed on a golf course five miles from Bradford Regional Airport while flying through snow for a landing.

On Christmas Eve, the same kind of plane slammed into a marshy area while making a landing approach to the same airport, again in a snowstorm and about the same time of night. Twenty were killed and 27 injured in that crash.

State Passengers

Seven persons from Michigan or with Michigan connections were killed in the Christmas Eve crash of the plane bound from Detroit to Bradford. Three Michigan persons survived the most recent crash.

"From a factual standpoint, it was the same kind of airplane in the same place," said Russell Abbott, head of the 10-man team of investigators for the National Transportation Safety Board.

"Whether the circumstances are the same is far from being resolved."

Abbott added that the situation is "coincident enough to assign the same team" that probed the Christmas Eve crash. No conclusions have been reached about that crash, he said.

Both Hit Trees

An airline spokesman said both planes were approaching the same runway, but from opposite directions.

And in both crashes, the planes clipped off the tops of trees before hitting the ground and flipping over on their backs. In neither crash did the crews give any indication of impending disaster.

Even the routes of the planes were the same, although in different directions. The plane that crashed Christmas Eve was Allegheny flight 736. It had left Detroit and landed at Erie, Pa., and was headed for Bradford and Harrisburg, Pa., before flying to Washington.

Area Sealed Off

The plane that went down Monday night was Allegheny flight 737, flying from Washington to Detroit with the same stops.

Investigators sealed off the snow-covered Pine Acres Golf Course. They recovered the plane's flight recorder and cockpit voice recorder, devices that keep track of the plane's movements in flight and conversations between the pilot and copilot.

In Washington, meanwhile, the airline announced stiffer landing requirements for its planes at any airport not equipped with an Instrument Landing System. The change, described as precautionary, will remain in effect at least until the current investigation has been completed, Allegheny said. Effective immediately, landing limits at airports without ILS will be increased to a 1,000-foot ceiling and three miles visibility. Limits had varied at different airports, but at Bradford service had been permitted with a 500-foot ceiling and one mile visibility.
